

INSIDE ANGLES

GRID CELEBRITIES Detroit Lions quarterback Eric Hipple and David Hill recently took off time from their pre-season workouts to visit the children over at the Sarah Fisher Home in Farmington Hills. They proved to be popular visitors and, according to Sarah Fisher officials, the Detroit Lions have a rooting section which is 98 fans stronger because of the visit. Earlier in the year Detroit Tiger Kirk Gibson made a visit.

Well, you can learn about how to handle your anger by attending a seven-week course at the Farmington YMCA at 28100 Farmington Road on Thursday, from 7-9 p.m., beginning Sept. 16. Quadriplegic and electric wheelchair users are being sought for the C League. Practices begin in mid-September for the season which runs from November through March. START THINKING ABOUT the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner scheduled this year for Oct. 7 at historical Boisfort Inn. This year's speaker is internationally-known economist and professor Paul McCracken. McCracken served on the President's Council of Economic Advisers from 1956-59 and was that group's chairman for three years beginning in 1968. He is now chairman of the council of Academic Advisers, American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research, Washington D.C. He also is a member of the Economic Policy Advisory Board formed by President Ronald Reagan at the beginning of his administration. He has been a member of the school of business administration at the University of Michigan since 1948. So whether you be pro or con, here's a chance to pass on to a presidential advisor how you feel about the state of Reaganomics.

The group is negotiating now for permanent office space and expect to be announcing a new telephone number before the month is out. Meanwhile, Helisek will take calls from any one who will loan, borrow or give the chapter any office equipment by calling her at 471-4475.
