dents.
Films include:
CASABLANCA (1943) — Thursday,
Sept. 9 — One of the most memorable of all film experiences, Casablanca has aken on the status of true Hollywood legend. All the elements of the production, story, cast, photography, direction, story, cast, photography, direction, and music, are woven together expertly to create a great motion picture.
The plot concerns wartime refugees statering in Morocco to obtain scarce gathering in Morocco to obtain scarce exit visas to Lisbon and certain freedom. One of Humphrey Bogart's best films, it was nominated for eight Acad-emy Awards and won for Best Picture, Best Director and Best Screenplay.

I NEVER SANG FOR MY FATHER (1988) — Thursday, Sept. 23 Youth, aging, and the tearing apart of bonds between parents and their children are the subjects of this powerful film. It paints an unforgettable portrait of proud, humorless "senior citizen" brilliantly played by Melvyn Douglas, determined to hold onto his son (Gene Hackman). Dorothy Stickney appears briefly as Douglas' wife, and Estelle Parsons plays the daughter who has been disowned for marrying a man of Jewish descent. I NEVER SANG FOR MY FATHER

STAGECOACH (1939) — Thursday, Oct. 7 — Starring John Wayne, and di-rected by John Ford, this classic West-ern teams a driver, a hounded saloon girl (Claire Trevor), an alcoholic doc-tor, the pregnant wife of a cavalry offi-cer, a conniving gambler (John Carra-dine), a liquor salesman, and an embez-zler on their way to Lordsburg.

MY MAN GODFREY (1936)
Thursday, Oct. 21 — In one of the best comedies of the Depression era, a mil-inoniare family hires a "forgotten man" (William Powell) as the new butler. Carole Lombard, Mischa Aver, and Eugene Pallette star.

NOTORIOUS (1946) — Thursday, Nov. 4 — One of Alfred Hitchcock's best and best-loved films, Cary Grant and Ingrid Bergmen star in this roman-tic spy thriller. Also starring Claude Rains, the film has a climax guaran-teed to deceive you.

THE SEA HAWK (1940) — Thursday, Nov. 18 — Errol Flynn is at his best in
