Jaycees and Jaycettes give a fall update

By Denise A. Albrecht and Kevin McKeryay

The Farmington Jaycees and Jaycettes offer leadership training through community development for young men and young women between the ages of 18 and 35.

The Jaycees program is designed specifically to meet the needs of the young man seeking to make his place in community and business ranks. The foremost purpose of the Jaycettes is to assist and cooperate with the Jaycees. Both groups participate in community services and social activities and promote leadership growth.

Upcoming Jaycee projects acompass activities for all ages. The Jaycees will be sponsoring the muscular-dystrophyprogram by placing cansisters in local stores for donations. In the youth area, the Jaycees will be trained as probation officers to work with delinquent youth. Also, a back-to-school awareness program for youth will be presented this fall. Details will be released soon. CPR training will be offered in September and Cotober as needed. On behalf of the committee, the two chairmen, Denise and Michael Albrew toward the two did like to thank the following people and businesses who assisted with this buge project.

Thank yous go to Laverae Nichols of the Farmington Public Schools; Loraine McClish, Randy Borst, and Steve Barnaby of the Farmington Observer, Dick Kernozek of the Northlyth of the Committee of Parmington, Marge Murrell of Gen Called Livonia Jayceettes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, Burger King of Parmington, Williams, Burger King of Parmington, Stevenson of Parmington, tessan; Sam Sheena of Farmington Hills Market, and the Founders' Festival Committee. The funds raised from this project will support many worthwhile community-service projects this year. More than 1,400 people were served.

The Jaycettes also raised money at their fresh lemonade stand near the barbeeue. They reportedly used 10 cases of lemons to keep the thirsty people well supplied. A thank you is extended to the Burger Kings of Farmington and assistance.

During Ridő Day on July 27, the Jaycettes helped with the face-painting tent, where thousands of children received colorful decorations free charge. For the Jaycettes' Founders Festival float, 'Pages of Our Year was the theme, with many project depicted in posters, props and cuned character's (such as Santa Claus for the "A visit with St. Nick" project).

Some other recent projects include a car wash supporting community ser-vices held Saturday, Aug. 7. Thanks to the Shell Gas Station on Orchard Lake and 10 Mile, the girls washed 42 cars on that hot day. Then, on August 18, several girls from Marillae Hall were treated by the Jaycettes to a lunch and swim social with a makeup demonstra-tion.

The labels collected will earn audiovisual or gymnasium equipment to be donated to a worthy group in the community. The Purina coupons are sent to the Oakland Humane Society to assist them with dog and cat food purchases. If you'd like to Pulion, community-service di-rector, at 552-7678.

UPCOMING JAYCETTE projects for September include making a mus-cular dystrophy donation of $100 on the Labor Day Telethon. This money was raised at the chicken barbecue and lemonade stand. A special project will lemonade stand. A special project will be set up to raise money for the Detroit Zoo's "Adopt an Animal" program. Two socials for the month are attend-ing a Tiger baseball game on Friday, Sept. 17, and visiting Eastern Market. A special time management pro-gram will be sponsored by the Jaycettes and Jaycees in cooperation with the Farmington Community Library.
