Ex-Hawk plays for Ohio school

Steve Sweeney

Last season Farmington Harrison won the state Class B football championship with tailback Steve Sweeney leading the way.

Sweeney is doing his running for Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, this fall.

Sweeney is a tailback on the powerful Wittenburg Tigers, which is in pursuit of the 28th consecutive winning season, an NCAA record. Wittenberg is coached by Dave Maurer, whose 13-year career coaching record of 114-19-3 gives his an .849 percentage.

ALBION SPIKERS

Albion College students Meghan O'Reilly and Sheri Biller, both graduates of Farmington-area high schools, are members of Albion's 1982 varsity volleyball team.

O'Reilly, a sophomore, is a Southfield resident and a graduate of Farmington Our Lady of Mercy High School. Biller, a freshman from Farmington Hills, graduated from Southfield-Lathrup.

Marty Androws, Albion's new head volleyball coach, expects a big improvement over last year's sixth-place finish in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA). "All 12 of our players are about even in skills," Andrews said. "We should be competitive with everyone in our league."
