

Classic autos, photography at Twelve-Oaks

An aura of nostalgia will be created during the "Classics With Charisma" third annual antique and classic automobile exhibition at Twelve Oaks Mall, Friday, Oct. 15 to Sunday, Oct. 24. An array of vintage automobiles will be displayed. Each automobile has been restored and cared for by its owners. They depict an era when glamour was the inspiration for design and meticulous handcraftsmanship.

This event is being presented in conjunction with Classic Auto Restoration in Farmington. Cash prizes will be awarded to the participants by a panel of judges, on the basis of overall aesthetic appeal. A duplicate prize to the car club of the winner's choice will also be given.

Participants will receive a professional photograph of their car. A commemorative plaque will also be presented to each participant.

"Classics With Charisma" also will feature an illustration exhibit of antique and classic cars by artist Dominic Pacitti, of Dearborn.

Pacitti has achieved extensive recognition from classic automobile enthusiasts for his renditions of old cars. Combining his artistic talents as both a vocation and an avocation, Mr. Pacitti is an artist for Ford Motor Company and has his own classic car collection.

Individuals will have an opportunity to express their creativity in the "Classics With Charisma" photography contest. Photo shooting sessions will be presented on Tuesday and Thursday, Oct. 19 and 21, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday, Oct. 23, from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. in the center court.

Consultations by Monte Nagler, Observer and Eccentric photography columnist, and Wally Donoghue, from Classic Auto Restoration, will be available to give winning photo tips to amateur photographers.

Cameras and film will be on loan courtesy of Dunn's City Camera and the Twelve Oaks Teen Fashion Panel will model fashions from Gaatos and Winkelman's during the sessions.

Also featured during the photography contest will be a Pentax representative to answer camera related questions. Cameras, cases and accessories are among the valuable prizes to be awarded to winning entries.

Dunn's City Camera is also offering a discount on all photo finishing throughout this event. Winning entries will be displayed at Twelve Oaks Mall in January, 1983. Entry forms are available at the information booth.

Twelve Oaks Mall is located on Novi Road and I-96. Mall hours are 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday through Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Jack Scannell (sitting) finally met the young Indian student who found his wallet containing $590 last week. The young man, Motz Bhindarwala, and his aunt, Sara Bohra, visited the Livonian at his home last Wednesday.

Disabled vets grateful Honesty saves big night out

By Teri Banas

Forty-two disabled veterans will spend a night on the town in Redford Township next month and all because of the extraordinary efforts of a special friend and the integrity of a 22-year-old graduate student from India.

The story of Motz Bhindarwala, the University of Detroit graduate student who has brightened the lives of the disabled vets, is one of unwavering honesty.

It begins with Livonian Jack Scannell, a man known throughout the city for his generous heart and concern for disabled veterans.

A disabled veteran himself, Scannell has spent the past 30 years in a wheelchair. But his days are devoted to visiting whom he calls "the forgotten people" — the confined patients of the Allen Park and Ann Arbor veterans hospitals.

LATE LAST MONTH, Scannell was in the Livonia Mall parking lot when he lost a wallet containing $590. It was money he raised selling personalized Social Security tags, address tags and license plates in a booth he manages inside the mall.

Scannell had raised the money so that he could treat his hospital friends to a special night Nov. 1 at the Disabled American Veterans Post in Redford.

"I wanted to take my friends on an outing," said Scannell, who lives in McNamara's Towers.

Scannell suffered a serious brain injury in an Air Force plane crash during the Korean War some 33 years ago. He has only partial control of his movements; eyesight in one eye is gone and his speech is slurred.

"I was going to go to the bank for a money order," said Scannell.

Scannell believes he probably lost the wallet when he dug into his pockets for some change.

Bhindarwala found the wallet later that day.

BHINDARWALA, who lives with his aunt, Sara Bohra, and her family in Livonia, has been in this country for one year. Since arriving to enroll in graduate biology studies at the University of Detroit, Bhindarwala said he has come to "like the people here" and is impressed with their disciplined hard work.

On that particular day, Bhindarwala had taken his aunt to shop at the mall. It was mid-afternoon, and he had classes in Detroit that evening.
