

ELECT THE BLANCHA

MICHIGAN SENATE

SENATOR JACK FAXON

DISTRICT 15

MICHIGAN SENATE DISTRICT 15

Senator Jack Faxon has a distinguished record of public service in the Michigan legislature. A State Senator for the past 12 years, Faxon previously served six years in the Michigan House of Representatives.

Senator Faxon's experience and ability have earned him his position as President Pro-tem of the Michigan Senate. He Chairs the Senate Education Committee, the Subcommittee on Retirement, and the Joint Legislative Committee on the Arts. In addition, Faxon is Vice-Chair of the Commerce Committee and a member of the Senate Labor and Retirement Committee.

Jack Faxon has been a key legislator working to strengthen education, support the arts, and protect senior citizens.

A professional educator, Faxon has graduate degrees from the University of Michigan and Wayne State University. He has fought to maintain and strengthen quality education in Michigan. As Chairman of the established the Michigan Council for the Arts. That organization has been one of the strongest supporters of Oakland County's unique cultural assets: the Cranbrook Academy of Art, the Meadow Brook Music Festival, arts programs in the schools, local symphony orchestras, theatre groups, and art associations. With Senator Faxon in the Senate, the Arts in Michigan have a dependable friend.

A life-long resident of the Metropolitan area, Senator Jack Faxon is well acquainted with the special concerns of senior citizens. That's why he led the fight for senior citizen homestead tax exemptions. Faxon has consistently demonstrated that he cares deeply about the plight of older people. He has fought for legislation to protect their incomes, halt huge increases in insurance costs and relieve them of the burden of high property taxes.

Jack Faxon has a record of achievement. He offers experience, integrity, and a record of getting things done. Jack Faxon makes government work for us.

On November 2, cast the vote that counts. Re-elect Senator Jack Faxon.
