

Faithful await the fate of their favorite sons

Staff photos/RANDY BORST

Students from North Farmington High School chose to participate in the Headlee campaign to earn credit for their civics class. From left are David Gunderson, Laurel Walker, Sandy Latham, Loriann Thornhill, Sara Cline and Will Reineke.

Mary Headlee and Polly Brennan share a light moment as the election returns rolled in Tuesday night.

Anti-ERA activist Elaine Donnelly predicts a Republican comeback after four years of the Blanchard administration.

Jerry Maxwell (left) and David Finney, both history teachers at North Farmington High, provided the entertainment at Headlee's headquarters at the Michigan Inn in Southfield.

Governor-elect Blanchard and running mate Griffitts field questions from the media during their first press conference since being elected.

RANDY BORST/staff photographer

Keith Geiger, head of the Michigan Education Association, and re-elected University of Michigan regent Sarah Goddard

Power appeared among the well-wishers at the Blanchard victory party at the Southfield Sheraton Tuesday night.

Chanel Beauty: the key to simple elegance. Now extraordinary make-up and skin care beautifiers in a unique medley of soft washes, subtle shadings, luxurious textures. Understated colors commanded by the famous Chanel fashion authority. Here: Nail enamel, 7.50. Lipstick, $10. Lip liner with brush and sharpener, 13.50. In Hudson's Aisles of Beauty, Oakland Mall only.

Chanel beauty bonus: a special Chanel gift is yours when you meet with Chanel Beauty Analyst, Beth Mascari, at Oakland, Tuesday, Nov. 9 through Saturday, Nov. 13. Call 585-3232, ext. 2286 to reserve your private consultation.

hudson's aisles of beauty

ORDER BY PHONE: 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. In Metro Detroit, call 569-2454. Elsewhere, order toll-free 1-800-233-2000.