THE LOOK will perform Tuesday when radio station WRIF hosts its five-year anniversary party at Jagers in Waterford.

The Look's members include Dave Edwards, lead vocalist; Randy Vollen, lead guitar and vocals; Sam Warren, lead guitar and vocals; Rick Cochran, bass, and John Sarkisian, drums and vocals.

The group has released two albums throughout the United States and Canada, as well as Germany, France, Switzerland and Austria. The LPs include the band's debut "We're Gonna Rock" and its latest effort "Look Again."

JOSH WHITE Jr., Detroit-area folk singer and entertainer, will present a concert at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Rochester High School. The concert is to benefit the scholarship funds of the National Honor Society and the Music Department.

In addition to his evening performance, White will visit the school during the day to talk to music students about the training necessary for a career in the entertainment field. Ticket information for the 90-minute concert can be obtained from Rochester High School, 651-5590, during business hours.

THE BIRMINGHAM Village Players will present "70, Girls, 70," a musical comedy by Fred Ebb and Norman Martin, with music by John Kander, Friday-Sunday and Nov. 23, 26-27, at the playhouse, corner of Hunter and Chestnut streets, south of Maple.

Based on the play "Breath of Spring" by Peter Lynce, the show is a disarming tribute to age. The story is about a group of 70-year-olds who decide to live things up in their retirement hotel.

The show is produced by Bond Young and Johanna Lodewyck and directed by Isabel Himelhoch. Musical director is Priscilla Benson; choreographer, Debbie Cragin, and set designer, Tom Koczek.

The cast of 25 players includes Lee Rosander as Ida; Peg Humphrey as Gert, a former female cop; Lindsay Balmer as Melba; Phil Whelan as Harry, a former convict; Ben Benson as Walter; Alice Christophers as Eunice; Chuck Himelhoch as Callahan; Karen Tegarden as Mrs. McIlhenny, and Ann Weisman as Fritz.

Tickets at $5 are available at the door, but reservations are recommended. For reservations call 644-2075.

AS PART of its 1982-83 Travel Film Series season, The Community House in Birmingham will offer a new travelogue on "Belgium," at 8 p.m. Friday-Saturday, at Bates and Townsend streets.

Kathleen Dusek will narrate her film.

Tickets at $3.75 each, or $3 for senior citizens (60 or older) and high school students are available in advance or at the door.

Preceding the film, a buffet dinner featuring a variety of American-style dishes will be served from 6-7:15 p.m. Dinner is $8.50 per person, including tax and gratuity, and reservations are necessary.

The Kingdom of Belgium is a land of two peoples — the Flemish and the Walloons, with each contributing its own distinctive culture and traditions to the nation as a whole. By living with both peoples in the cities and countryside, Kathleen Dusek has filmed "Belgium," which deals with the diversities as well as the common ground of the two cultures.

To attend the travel film, call The Community House in Birmingham at 644-5832 for ticket information.

"OLIVER!" will celebrate the holiday season at the Birmingham Theatre from Nov. 26 to Jan. 2. Freely adapted from Charles Dickens' "Oliver Twist," it is a tuneful condensation of the starvation-to-salvation story, designed for the entire family.

Comic Jack Carter will star as the rogue Fagin, and Shani Wallis will recreate her original film role as Nancy, singing such hits as the torch love song "As Long As He Needs Me."

The theater will offer a free ticket to one of its preview performances of "Oliver!" to anyone who donates five pounds or more of canned goods.

The promotion is in the spirit of a favorite "Oliver!" melody "Food, Glorious Food." Donations will be distributed to needy families in the Detroit area.

Canned goods should be dropped off in the theater lobby, 211 S. Woodward, between noon and 5 p.m. Nov. 26. The complimentary ticket to a preview performance (Nov. 26-28) can be obtained at that time.

"Oliver!" ran more than two years in London and on Broadway. For ticket
