Farmington cagers ready for season

"We're looking forward to the challenge — and it's going to be a heck of a challenge with teams like (Plymouth) Salem and (Livonia) Stevenson," Roy said.

LUTHERAN NORTHWEST, a Class D school in Farmington Hills, won just one game in 20 last season, so the coach George Lemke's Crusaders have almost nowhere to go but up this winter.

Northwest graduated three starters from last year's team and another prospect, Mike Aumann, will be lost until January because of knee problems.

Lemke will be counting on seniors John Northcott (6-1), Darrell Johnson (5-11) and Brooks Rousseaux (5-9) and juniors David Lehl (5-10), Mark Roehrs (6-1) and Dave Baumgartner (5-10).

"We'll be strong inside," predicted Lemke. "We don't have that much height, but we do have some leaping ability. Also, we can be fairly quick."

Proudly Presents
Twas A Few Days 'Til Christmas

Twas a few days 'til Christmas and all thru the halls
All the ceilings were peeling and so were the walls
The chimney that stockings were hung by with care
Like most of the house was in need of repair.

The children were nestled all snug in their beds
While visions of plaster fell down on their heads

Then I with my hammer and tack of kinesis
Had the hanging wretched up and made quite a mess
So there on the carpet were several bent nails
And pieces of paneling that splintered and fell

Away to the closet I flew like a flash
To hook up the vacuum and pick up the trash
The plug on the cord of the vacuum was wet
And gave me a shock that I won't soon forget

When looking at watermarked ceilings and floor
It was plain how the dampness had runned the cord
With a leak in the ceiling I knew right away
That all of the shingles must soon be replaced

More rapid than crabgrass my trouble had grown
I mumbled and grumbled and started to moan
If it's not one thing, it's surely another
And I'd live a lot better if I had my drawers.

The top of the front porch is ready to fall
And the siding needs painting on all outside walls

The plumbing is coming apart at the seams
And making a nightmare of the house of my dreams
I'll talked so hopeless, I said to my dear
My lace in my hands in utter despair

But then as I pondered the problems I had
I picked up a paper and saw a big ad
It told of a place where the big builders go
To buy their supplies cause the prices are low

The home decorators have known quite a while
It's a great place for buying their paint and trim
Plus paneling and shelving and lights of all kind
And tools, locks and hardware, the best you can find

So when you find that your home is a wreck
Go by the store where the big builders check
Each time that you stop in, you'll know how they try
To give super service and extra Good Buys
