

DeRoy Prize winner

Bertha Cohen of Bloomfield Township accepts a $500 prize for her work "Rose Study" from Richard Thompson, provost of the Orchard Ridge campus of Oakland Community College. A jury of OCC fine arts faculty selected her watercolor for first prize from more than 40 entries. It will be exhibited with other winners Feb. 11-20 in the Orchard Ridge Performing Arts Building and permanently displayed on the campus with a plaque denoting it as part of the Helen L. DeRoy Purchase Prize Art Collection.

St. Joe's gets $50,500 grant

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital of Pontiac has been awarded a $50,500 grant from the Skillman Foundation to equip the hospital's new and expanded maternity care unit.

The grant will enable the hospital to provide its maternity unit, nursery and delivery rooms with special monitoring and surgical equipment used in the care of mothers and their newborns.

are four nursery ECG respiratory monitors, three automated blood-pressure monitors with built-in printers, a delivery room ECG monitor and recorder, a Cusumma section surgical instrument set, a nursery infusion pump, a delivery room spotlight, two antepartum monitors and a bassinet resuscitator.

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital has received more than $400,000 from the Skillman Foundation since 1970.

HOW ABOUT A FREE TRIP

Our new Pontiac Area Office invites you to an Open House January 13th & 14th. To celebrate our new location, we're giving away a weekend for two in Las Vegas including round trip air fare and hotel accommodations. But to win you have to come to our office at 1375 N. Oakland Blvd. in Waterford Township and fill out an entry form. And while you're at it, have yourself a donut.

Entries and refreshments will be available January 13th and 14th only. Drawing will be held January 14th. Winner will be notified by January 15. Employees of AAA and its advertising agency may not enter. No cash substitutions for trip. Trip must be taken by May 31, 1983.
