But such pro-life organizations as Birthright of Oakland County continue to keep busy in the wake of the Supreme Court's ruling.

Birthright is an organization of volunteer nurses and social workers who help women through pregnancy, according to Patricia Bean, a registered nurse who is a volunteer at the group's Royal Oak office. The organization also

A TOTAL OF 44,031 abortions took place in Michigan in 1981, according to the Michigan Department of Public Health. Of these, 15,516 were to persons between the ages of 20 and 24 and City Attorney Paul Bibeau, instrumental in drafting the ordinance, said granting an exemption could prompt other entrepreneurs to seek variances.

It should be realized, said Mayor Fred Hughes, that licensing fees covers police protection, fire and zoning inspection, and city clerk costs.

Said Soronen; "I agree the Holiday Inn has a situation that is unique — they provide their own security — and compromise couldn't be made, perhaps an adjustment on the fees, or some other accommodation within the ordinance."

as many phone calls. The average age of its clients is between 17 and 22, she said, although the age range of its clients is between 13 and 40.

A random survey of visitors to Farmington Hills' Tally Hall showed that many were unchanged in their pro-abortion stances.

"Although I myself couldn't have an abortion, I feel that it is not up to me to dictate to other people," said Marie

Little of Farmington Hills. "I am for freedom of choice."

"It depends on the individual," said Rose Konalakis of Farmington.

"I think there's too many unwanted kids," Terry Shuster said.

"I never used to be (for abortion), but people seem to be so sick, why let them have children?" said Darlene Mathews of Farmington Hills.

A disgruntled Keywell said afterwards the matter will be brought before the hotel's board of directors, who may close down the arcade.

Dyslexics are eligible to receive "talking" books and periodicals on records through county libraries for the blind.

With remediation, the most severely affected dyslexics may be able to reach the third- or fourth-grade level while mildly affected dyslexics can become relatively good readers.

The National Orton Dyslexia Society based in Baltimore has a Michigan branch, Rabinovitch added. The research society, which conducts brain research, is seeking dyslexics willing to donate their bodies after death for autopsies, Frauenheim said.
