Computer language taught at Madonna

Educators of all grade levels are invited to learn the fundamentals of the Basic computer language at Madonna College's "Basic Programming for Educators" workshop during February and March.

Madonna instructor James Winebrenner will conduct the course. He said concepts such as loops, decisions and subroutines will be explained. Students will learn to create and animate their Construction courses are taught at Wayne

Two non-credit building construction courses will be offered by Wayne State University's College of Lifelong Learning. Scheduled to begin the week of Feb. 1 and to run for 10 weeks, both will be held at Birmingham Groves Hall, 20500 W. 13 Mile Road, near Evergreen Road.

Construction blueprint reading on Tuesdays, 7-9:30 p.m. (Feb. 1 to April 5), will be taught by Erwin Siporin, Harley Ellington, Pierce, Yee Associates. It will cover reading and interpreting building plans, specifications and contract documents.

Estimating construction procedures and costs on Wednesdays, 6-8:30 p.m. (Feb. 2 to April 6), will be taught by Stuart A. Rodgers, Eberle Smith Architects. It will cover techniques for estimating quantities and costs of materials accurately, how to use price quotations, how to prepare bids and how to get the best price from contractors.

For registration or course information, call 577-4710.

Donald Greenbury

Tool chief is named

Donald Greenbury, president and general manager of Arrowmuth Tool & Die Inc. in Southfield, is the newly elected president of the National Tooling and Machining Association (NTMA) headquarters here. Greenbury will officially assume his duties during an annual meeting next week in Palm Springs, Calif.

A native of Detroit and a former Michigan State University student, Greenbury has headed Arrowmuth Tool & Die Inc. since 1965 when he moved up from vice president to succeed his father upon the latter's retirement. The company was founded in 1942. Greenbury is a former president of the Detroit Chapter of NTMA and the Detroit Tooling Association. He has served on and chaired numerous national committees including membership, apprenticeship and training. It was Greenbury who worked to initiate the NTMA-sponsored National Apprenticeship Contest, now in its 11th year.

NTMA, composed of roughly 4,000 members throughout the United States, is the national representative of the $20-billion-a-year contract tooling and machining industry.

NTMA was founded in 1943.
