The Y is more...

Quick: What do you think of when you think of the YMCA? For many, it's a swimming pool, or maybe kids playing basketball.

That's right. And that's great. But the Y is a lot more. Today's Y serves everyone—boys and girls and men and women of all ages. YMCA programs reach out to people where they live, solving problems, helping them become better parents and students, better citizens of this community, nation and world, better human beings. Founded in London in 1844, the YMCA is now a world-wide organization located in 90 countries.

Yes, the Y is more than sweat socks and swimming pools. And it's greater even than its programs, because the Y is people giving of time and talent.

The Y has always been an organization of volunteers and their role is larger than ever. Volunteers keep the Y in touch with the community, and multiply the effectiveness of staff. They teach, they work with children, they make decisions on boards and committees. They share. The Y is people...and without people, the Y is like an empty swimming pool.. Or a sock without a mate.
