

Cookie sale under way

Brownie Scouts Jean Muesel (left) from Redford and Melissa Christie from Farmington helped launch Girl Scout Cookie sales. Sanders will also be offering a special ice cream made with the cookies to help the Scouts. They are with Arshalous Heckman, who is area cookie sale manager for Livonia. Girl Scouts will be taking orders for the cookies through March 13. Sanders Ice Cream will be available in the company's 39 stores, select supermarkets and drug stores throughout the month.

Holy Cross repeats winning fund-raiser

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox Church members, who staged a successful millionaire's and bingo party last spring, will stick with its winning format.

The party this year runs from 6 p.m. to midnight in Vladimir's Restaurant, 28125 Grand River.

The ladies only "Golden Bingo" will be the same, except its been expanded and all the prizes will be pieces of 14-carat jewelry.

Las Vegas-type games will run all evening. Refreshments will be available and the hand-writing analyst will be back. The grand prize winner will receive a thousand dollar bill.

Admission is $2, asked at the door.

Hosner appointed to LIT staff

Frank Hosner of Farmington Hills has been named to the faculty at Lawrence Institute of Technology in Southfield.

Hosner received a bachelor of science in engineering from Case Institute of Technology and a master of science in bio-medical engineering from Case Western Reserve University.
