Oakway Cabaret Concert set

Oakway Symphony's annual Cabaret Concert will be staged at 8 p.m. Saturday, March 19, at Madonna College's Activities Building, Livonia.

Featured as master of ceremonies will be Pat Bob Taylor, area radio personality and Ann Arbor's famed "singing plumber." Francesco Di Biasi, Oakway's conductor, has engaged as guest conductors Sister M. Francine Van De Vyver, president of Madonna College, and Ernest A. Jones, popular Detroit-area guest conductor and chairman of the board, D'Arcy-MacManus & Maslin, Inc.

Guest soloists will include Julia

Broxholm, soprano who has appeared in leading roles with the Michigan Opera Theater and at the University of Michigan, and Holly Marable, violinist, who currently is concertmaster of the Grand Rapids Symphony and who next year will become associate concertmaster of the Phoenix (Arizona) Symphony.

Performing Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" will be Alice Berberian Haldostian, pianist, who is well known in Detroit musical circles and who holds a master's degree in music from the University of Michigan. Mrs. Haldostian currently is vice president of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony and serves on Oakway's Board of Directors.

Single admission to the concert is $7 with reservations also being taken for tables of eight at $48 and tables of 10 for $60. Snacks and desserts will be available along with a cash bar.

Ticket reservations may be made by contacting Sally Olds, 2354 Dorchester, Apt. 207, Troy, 48064 or by telephoning 649-0715 or 476-6544. Madonna College is located at Schoolcraft and Levan in Livonia and accessible from westbound I-96.
