

Library and LWV host workshop for women

"Getting Smart in the '80s" is the theme of the annual Women's Concerns Workshop. The workshop is sponsored by the League of Women Voters of West Bloomfield-Farmington Area and the Farmington Community Library.

The free seminar will run from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday in Farmington Branch Library.

A credit counselor will explain the importance of a woman establishing her own credit history. Materials handed out free will assist women in checking their credit history.

Judy Reynolds, legislative chairwoman for Michigan League of Women Voters, will discuss lobbying techniques for individuals and groups. Participants will learn how to write letters that will be read, and how to be seen and heard from the city hall to Capitol Hill. The film, "How to Take Action," will be shown.

Register for program by calling the library, 474-7770.

Storytellers meet

Southfield resident Alice McCoy will host Detroit Story League at noon Saturday in her home at 25324 Stonycroft. Guests are welcome to sit in on the storytelling and story workshop session by calling the hostess at 354-4347.

McCoy's co-hosts for the day is Mary Jeffrey of Livonia, and the theme for the day is "Windy Tales."

Storytellers for the afternoon are Katie Allam of Redford, Dinghy Sharpe of Union Lake and Barbara Schutz of Ann Arbor.

The workshop will be led by Alyce Glotzner of Dearborn, Jane Prebo of Livonia and Linda Aldrich of Plymouth.

The group works to perpetuate the art of storytelling; then responds to requests for storytelling engagements throughout southeastern Michigan.

One of the items on the agenda will be discussion surrounding a request to do a "Story Hour" program for WCAE-Radio.

Training sessions set for 'Helping Hands'

Three training sessions will be conducted by Farmington Hills police officers for residents who wish to join the "Helping Hands" safety program initiated and sponsored by Farmington Area Parents and Teachers Association.

"More helping hands are needed each year to fill the vacancies of people who move, if the program is to stay as successful as it has been in Farmington," said Sandy Inch.

The program involves displaying a card in a window of the participants' homes identifying it as a safe refuge for school children who may be in trouble.

One training session is at 7:30 p.m. Monday in Farmington Branch Library on Liberty.

Sessions will follow at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 23 and at 10 a.m. Thursday, March 24 in Farmington Hills Branch Library on 12 Mile, east of Farmington Road.

Each presentation is about 90 minutes in length.

Inquiries will be taken by Inch at 474-4484.

Concert celebrates Bach's birthday

Christ Church Cranbrook will celebrate Johann Sebastian Bach's birthday with a concert in his honor at 5 p.m. Sunday.

The program of music for voices and instruments will feature soprano Caroline Rogers and tenor Carmen Cavallaro performing arias and duets, accompanied by members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Christ Church director/organist Charles Raines will conduct.

Thomas Kuras, continuo, will play Bach's Concerto in F Minor for harpsichord.

In addition to compositions by J.S. Bach, the concert will include selections by Handel who was born the same year as Bach (1685).

Rogers is known in the Detroit area for her performances at the Edsel and Eleanor Ford House and at the Marygrove College "Saturdays at Four" series. Currently a Marygrove faculty member, she also sings with the Lyric Chamber Ensemble and belongs to the Christ Church Cranbrook singing staff.

Cavallaro, also a staff singer at Christ Church, specializes in early vocal music. He has performed at the Detroit Institute of Arts "Brunch with Bach" series and was tenor soloist for the 1980 and 1982 nationally acclaimed performances of Handel's "Messiah" with Ann Arbor's Ars Musica Baroque Orchestra.

The program will be preceded by a carillon concert at 4:30 p.m. by carillonneur Beverly Buchanan.

Tickets, $5 for adults, and $3 for students and senior citizens, are available by calling 644-5210 or at the door, if any remain.

Christ Church Cranbrook is an Episcopal church at Cranbrook and Lane Pine, Bloomfield Hills. It is affiliated with the Cranbrook Educational Community.

Peter Rabbit will visit youth's party

Peter Rabbit will be guest of honor at a children's Easter Party from 1-4 p.m. Sunday, March 27, in William Grace Elementary School, 29040 Selawasee.

Host for the party is Pat Ash, a blind resident of Farmington Hills, who has been giving the spring party for the past five years and says it is one of her greatest enjoyments.

Children and neighbors from the Nine Mile-Middlebelt area are filling Easter baskets now, preparing prizes and in rehearsal for the "Bunny Town Parade." The play is an original script, written by Ash, who also makes all the costumes for the spring play staged for the party.

Donations are $2, which covers the cost of expenses. Ash asks for advance reservations so she will know how many to prepare for, by calling her at 476-0381, or Claudia Farren at 476-0087.

Last year she had 128 children at the party.
