thing seriously, including his last summer with his dad or his struggles with the reality of dying from cancer.

Harry Carlson (Scottie Templeton) made his debut as Dr. Rank in "A Doll House" after returning to OU in 1982 to continue his studies. He is a real estate broker and building contractor and a member of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Board of Realtors.

Paulette Louise Tilley (Maggie Stratton) has been active at OU both on and off the stage. She appeared as Mrs. VanDam in "Under the Gaslight" and worked backstage for "The Great American Backstage Musical." She also is involved in the Oakland University Mime Ensemble. Tilley is a Junior in the Theatre Arts program.

MARY A. WELLS (Dr. Petrelli) is not new to the stage, but this is one of her first speaking roles in a 1982 production. As a professional sign language interpreter, Wells also has appeared in "Romeo and Juliet," "Under the Gaslight" and "The Great American Backstage Musical," as an interpreter during special performances for the hearing impaired.

Wells is a psychology and theater arts major and teaches a course on "American Sign Language" at OU.
