Y begins spring program

The Early Spring Program at Northwest YWCA, 25940 Grand River, will begin the week of March 28 and run for a seven-week term.

The YWCA which houses a swimming pool, indoor tennis courts and various activity rooms provides a variety of subjects for men, women and children in the area.

Adult classes, both daytime and evening, include swimming, tennis, bridge, aerobics, physical fitness, yoga, ceramics, quilting, stenciling and wallpapering. Additional daytime subjects are tatting, soft sculpture, watercolor, and oil painting.

A special series called "Make It Take It" involves a different craft project each week and can be taken singly or in the series. There is nursery service available for daytime programs.

Evening-only programs include dance, exercise, bridge, prenatal exercise, body conditioning, landscaping, photography, ballet, candleworking, belly dance, piano, jazz dance, ballroom dance and toymaking.

Youth programs include swimming, tennis, piano, jazz dance, tap dance, karate, creative arts, ballet, gymnastics and tumbling. Specialized subjects for pre-schoolers are available in crafts, gym, swimming, science, school readiness and pre-dance.

Teens are welcome in all adult programs and driver education is offered for those 15 and over.

For information on all YWCA programs, call 537-8500. The YWCA is a Torch Drive Agency.
