'Facade' in chamber ensemble set April 17

Charles Greenwell of WQRS-FM and radio personality Brenda Ellison will narrate "Facade" by Edith Sitwell at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, April 17, in Birmingham Temple, 28611 12 Mile.

The concert is cosponsored by WQRS-FM 105. Tickets will be available at the door or by calling Joan Rose, 543-5912, or Ann Kutnick, 355-3319. Admission is $7 or $5 for students and seniors.

"Facade," composed in 1921, is made up of 21 poems set to music by William

Walton. Dr. David Daniels, chairman of the music department at Oakland University and director of the Warren and Pontiac-Oakland symphonies, will conduct a six-member chamber ensemble made up of musicians from the Detroit and Warren symphonies.

The performance of "Facade" will be preceded by chamber music works selected by Dr. Daniels.

An afterglow will follow the concert, giving the audience the opportunity to meet the artists.
