Face moisturizing treatment: after steamy shower, blot/body dry but let face dry naturally.

Beauty trick: wear a delicate pink tint high on cheekbones near hairline to make eyes sparkle.

For immaculate skin during day, saturate cotton with cleanser, carry in purse in small jar, use for freshening.

Farmington Socially Speaking

By KATHY ZISKA GR. 4-7261

She must be a very special person, Miss Susan Kosofsky, the third grade teacher at Kenbrook School. During the Sunday services at the Congregation B'nai David, Susan was wed to Robert Sher.

The third graders were invited to the ceremony and it surprised many, and I am sure even Susan, that two-thirds of her class showed up.

THERE ARE twenty children in the class and those that attended the wedding ceremony were Susan Bloomquist, Robbie Smith, Richard Burrell, Melissa Simk, Kerrie Butler, Donna Carrievau, Ann Schaeffer, Guy Cava, David Dierks, Carolyn Peterson, Janet Doughty, Maureen Muzzarelli, Paul Grisdale, Michael Miller and Lee LaFleur.

There was a special treat too! The third graders were photographed with the bride and groom and you know how exciting that is especially if you are most fond of the lovely bride and she happens to be your teacher.

A JUNE bride-to-be, Miss Shariyn Stegglies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stegglies of Biddestown, who is promised to John Lynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lynn of Pillsbury Drive was honored with a miscellaneous bride's shower, last Friday given by three of her aunts, Mrs. Ted Wohlfeil, Mrs. William Miles and Mrs. Jack Stegglies.

The party was held in the home of Mrs. Jack Stegglies in Livonia. Farmington area guests were mother of the soon to be groom, Mrs. Arthur Lynn and daughter Annette, Mrs. Fred Bulman, Mrs. Charles Owen, Mrs. Milton Cumbo, Mrs. Geoffrey Hopper, Mrs. Luigi Martini, and Mrs. Jack Haise.

Out of town guests included both of the bride-to-be's Shariyn's grandmothers, Mrs. Ed Stegglies from Grand Rapids and Mrs. Frank Milligan and aunt, Hazel Stanley from Warren, Michigan.

land, returned nicely tanned and raring to do an about face, back toward the island paradise where life is not quite as hectic as it is at Browns Drugs on Orchard Lake Road.

It was a marvelous Saturday for the Farmington Association of Handicapped Children Fun-Fair. The crowds were steady and I'm sure they had fun as well as leaving their funds.

Special thanks are made to the many volunteers and the committee chairmen: Dorothy Stoutjerdyk, Marie Frishman, Mrs. Moore, Barbara Panaritis, Enos Hellard, John Turmala. Also the teen groups! Demolay, Farmington Varsity Club, North Farmington Varsity Club and Sorrows Sodality and Seniors.

A note of gratitude also for the Grand Belt Shell Station who supplied the "Beat The Heat" automobile which proved to be fun to watch as well as fun to beat; John Turmala for the donation of the stereo and Pet's and Particulars for the donated puppy that was raffled.

President of the association, Joe Martin is most pleased with the tremendous response to the very worthwhile cause.
