Businesses supporting Festival 2001

"UPPORT FROM the Southfield SUPPORT FROM the Southfield business community is one of the primary reasons "Festival 2001" is expected to be the biggest arts festival in the city's history. Scheduled for May 20-22, the festival has been planned as one of the major events of Southfield's 25th anniversary celebration. It will feature their feed beach tion. It will feature ethnic food booths, crafts, performances by symphony orchestras and bands, and juried exhibites its by more than throughout Michigan. than 120 artists from

"Festival 2001" is sponsored by the Southfield Arts Council, a private, nonprofit organization affiliated with the city. The event will mark the seventh time since 1972 the Arts Council has hosted a major festival.

"This festival will be the largest event of its kind in Oakland county," said Jean Hollander, Arts Council president. "It will be nothing short of spectacular.

ENTERTAINMENT will include the Israeli Folk Dancers, the Cross-Trailer Square Dancers, the Detroit Creative Dance Group, Southfield Symphony, Oakway Symphony, Scandinavian Symphony, Metropolitan Youth Symphony and Southfield/Lathrup Marching Band. Ethnic booths will offer a wide variety of taste treats, including Greek. Mexican and Italian foods.

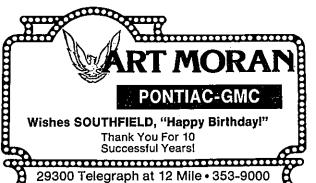

Special attractions for children include clowns, an art center and children's animal farm sponsored by Federal Mog-ul Corporation. The event will be broad-cast live by WQRS-FM and videotaped by Continental Cablevision of South-

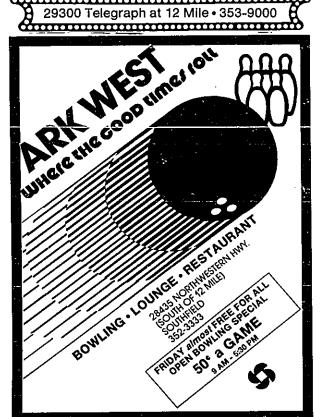

"The support of the local business community has been wonderful," Hol-lander said. "It is gratifying to see the tremendous support for the arts in Southfield."

Festival 2001's supporters/contributors include continental Cablevision.
"WQRS-FM, Tel-Twelve Mall, North-land Center, Lincoln-Mercury Division of Ford Motor Co., Southfield Chamber of Commerce, the Southfield Eccentric. Monthly Detroit Magazine, Bendix Corp., Michigan Inn, Graphic Designs, Comerica Bank, Michigan National Bank-Oak-land, Wolverine Carbide Die Co., Macca-bees Mutual Life Insurance Co., Federal Mogul Corp., Royal Management Co./ Entrance Rugs, J.L. Hudson Co., Eton Corp., Manufactures National Bank, Maple Office Supply, Gulf & Western Corp., General Motors Corp., J.C. Pen-ney and Stan Wilks Lincoln-Mercury. The festival will be held at the Southfield Civic Center Plaza, 26000 Ever-green. Parking and admission are free. For more information, contact the Southfield Arts Council, 569-4728 or 559.

Credits

This edition is a supplement to the Observer & Eccentric Newspa-

Advertising coordinator was Monica DiCola.

Editorial coordinator was Carl Stoddard. Staff writers who con-tributed to this supplement include Dan Bodene, Shirlee Rose Iden and Sharon Dargay.

Special thanks goes to Southfield
City Councilwoman Vicki Goldbaum, whose Southfield history baum. Whose Southment instally book proved invaluable, and South-field Public Relations Director Georgella Muirhead and Southfield Deputy Librarian Douglas Zys-towski for their tireless efforts on our behalf.

