Silk painting exhibition to benefit bilingual school

A French silk painting exhibition and sale will be held from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday at Lycee International at 26400 Evergreen at 13 Mile in Southfield.

Scarves, pillows, decorative pictures and wearable art, all handpainted on 100 percent silk, will be exhibited. Proceeds from the sale will be used to benefit Lycee International, a bilingual college preparatory school.

Silk painting is a craft that has developed into a fine art in France. Intricate designs, handpainted with special dyes are fired by a heat process for durability. Unusual scarves, wall hangings and unique wearable art including vests, capes and tunics are created with dyes using color washes combined with batik effects.

Area artists who will exhibit include Marilee Castaing, Michele Fargoes, Francoise Hellen, Maryse Harvent, Nicole Subias, Martine Leroy, Marie Paule Morvillier, Brigitte Rebecq, Francoise Ventre, Colette Marchand and Laura Sella.

For more information call Lycee International at 643-1178.
