

Writer shows strong literary ability

Mrs. Green: I have read your column for some time now and really find it interesting. I think it's amazing what you can tell about a person's personality by their writing. I'd also like to see just how accurate what you come up with is.

I was going to do my neat writing so you wouldn't have to work so hard to decipher it but I figured my regular writing would give you a more accurate picture to draw from. Most of the time I print because it is slightly easier to read.

Anyway, I'll be waiting for your analysis. With material as strange as my writing your response has to be interesting. G.D. — Livonia.

Dear G.D.: That was very perceptive of you to realize your natural handwriting would present the most accurate portrayal of your personality. Highly developed concentration is the first thing I see as I peruse your small-size handwriting. The ability to zero in on one thing at a time without interruption is quite evident. You are an intelligent young woman, having both the mental faculties and strong ability to utilize the experience gained from life and living.

An emotional person is also suggested and these emotions are often merciful.

Often there is a directness about you. Quickly grasping essentials you find non-essentials are both cumbersome and restrictive. Augmenting this is subtlety and maneuverability. The realization of a goal may be more important than how it is accomplished.

You are busy and active. At times you seem to be a tad careless which probably results in banging, bruising or hurting yourself.

Some emotional hurts from the past often cause you to have your guard up to prevent recurrence. Perhaps it is this resentment from which you are seeking to free yourself. Marginal spacing suggests you would like to move into new vistas.

The person represented in your surname may be involved with some of this as it seems you feel you do not know him well. At the same time you may also feel superior to him in some area or areas.

Strong interest in materialism is suggested by your handwriting. You tend to be frugal and your concern for physical and vital needs is evident.

Cultural signs are also present. Literary ability is strong. Words flow ever so smoothly for you. And just a suggestion of art or the appreciation of it is here to a less degree.

Please send questions about your handwriting to Mrs. Lorene C. Green, a certified graphologist, in care of this newspaper. Use a full sheet of white, unlined paper, writing in the first person singular. Age and handedness are also helpful.
