

Regiments to re-enact Civil War

Paul Scheler of Livonia (left) is Andy, Kathryn Paraventi of Trenton is Sophie and Ron Turek of Dearborn is Norman in the Komeday Players Dinner Theatre production of "Star Spangled Girl."

Dinner theater stages 'Star Spangled Girl'

The Broadway comedy hit, "The Star Spangled Girl" by Nell Simon, will open Friday and run through June at the Komeday Players Dinner Theatre of Allen Park.

Performances will be Fridays-Saturdays, with cocktails at 6:30 p.m., dinner at 7:30 and show at 8:45, at the Allen Park Motor Lodge, 14867 Southfield Road, between I-94 and I-75.

This comedy brings together an all-American girl and two young men struggling to publish a protest magazine, with resulting fires of love and politics.

The part of Sophie, the Star Spangled Girl, will be played by Kathryn Paraventi of Trenton. Andy will be played by Paul Scheler of Livonia, and Norman will be played by Ron Turek of Dearborn.

The play is under the direction of Bill Salisbury of Farmington Hills.

DINNER SERVED at the table features relish tray, salad, choice of entrees including prime rib of beef au jus, baked potato and dessert. The price is $14.95 per person, plus tax and gratuity.

For reservations, call 386-1300 or 681-1383 anytime.

"Star Spangled Girl" will be the third production this season in the new Theatre Room of the Allen Park Motor Lodge. Other shows were "Vanities" and "Same Time, Next Year."

Attic Theatre schedules 'WARP' trilogy

The Attic Theatre will present a science-fiction mystery in three parts — the "WARP Trilogy," May 27 through Sept. 10.

"WARP I: My Battlefield, My Body" will run for seven weeks, Friday, May 27, through Saturday, July 9. "WARP II: Unleashed! Unchained!" the seventh Malinstage production in the Attic Theatre's season of Michigan premieres, opens Friday, July 15, and runs through Saturday, Aug. 27.

Performances of Malinstage productions "WARP I" and "WARP II" runs at 8 p.m. Thursdays-Fridays, 8 and 9 p.m. Saturdays and 6:30 p.m. Sundays at the theater, 525 E. Lafayette at Beaumont in Detroit's Greektown.

"WARP III: To Die . . . Alive!" will be performed during the run of "WARP II" on Tuesdays, Aug. 16 and 23, and at 8 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 21.

Hundreds of authentically uniformed troops from Midwestern Civil War re-enactment regiments will assemble to perform period military drills, participate in live musketry competition and demonstrate cannon firing at Historic Fort Wayne.

Civil War Days will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday-Sunday at the fort's waterfront parade ground. Livernois and W. Jefferson off I-75, in Detroit.

Admission to Fort Wayne, including all Civil War Days activities, is $1 for adults, 50 cents for senior citizens and children.

For additional information call 267-9360.

Fort Wayne's waterfront parade ground will be the setting for President Lincoln to review the troops, in a Civil War re-enactment this weekend.
