MARTHA FAIRLEY

CHERYL KROOM

PATRICIA REEVES

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Fairley of Albion announce the engagement of their daughter, Martha Elizabeth, to David Lawrence Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Jones of Priscilla Lane, Plymouth. The bride-elect is a senior at Michigan State University, majoring in special education, and is affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority. Her fiancé, a senior at Michigan State University, is majoring in labor and industrial relations. A member of Delta Sigma Phi, he is a 1966 graduate of Plymouth High School. No wedding date has been set.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Kroom of Kipke Avenue, Redford Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Cheryl Lynn, to Michael Stephen Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Barnes of Seminole Avenue, Redford Township. The bride-elect is a 1967 graduate of Redford Union High School and a junior at Eastern Michigan University. Her fiancé is a 1965 graduate of Salesian High School and spent five years in the U.S. Navy. He is manager of McDonald's in Southfield. Sept. 18 is the wedding date.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Reeves of Dearborn announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to Michael John McGuire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGuire of West Chicago Avenue, Redford Township. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Edsel Ford High School and Henry Ford Community College and is affiliated with Beta Sigma Phi sorority. She is employed by Detroit Diesel. Her fiancé attended the University of Detroit and served two years in Vietnam with the U.S. Army. He is employed by Standard Oil. The couple plans to be married May 29 in the Church of the Divine Child, Dearborn.

Spotlight on Women

TOP CANDY SALESWOMEN—Camp Fire Girls from Plymouth and northwest Detroit were honored recently at the father and daughter banquet of the Wauwatosa district, held in Roma Hall. The annual candy sale supports the CFC Camp Wauwatosa, and some of the best salesmen in the district were Cheri Smith, left, Plymouth; Tanya Robertson, Plymouth; Julie Adams, Detroit; and Sandy Greenwald, Detroit. They are holding one of the banquet centerpieces, which had to portray some aspect of camping. (Observer photo by Vince Witke)

Village Chapel Site For Couple's Vows

A candlelight ceremony March 28 in Martha-Mary Chapel, Greenfield Village, united Cynthia Ann Clark and Dennis Harold Saulsberry in marriage.

Officiating was Milton Fletcher of Rochester, Mich., vice president of Michigan Christian College where the bride and bridegroom studied.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark of Plymouth and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Saulsberry of Niles, Mich.

THE BRIDE wore an ivory gown with cotton velvet lace ruching trimming bodice, skirt and built-in train. Tiny satin bows trimmed the long sleeves and high lace collar. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a headpiece of fresh daisies, and she carried daisies, white baby mums, white tea roses and babies' breath in a colonial nosegay.

Carrying out the old-fashioned look were her attendants' gowns. They ivory lace bodices had high lace collars and long puffed sleeves and were trimmed with gold embroidery to match the chiton skirts.

Mrs. Clark chose a floor-length gown with a royal blue velvet bodice and lighter blue satin skirt. Mrs. Saulsberry's floor-length gown was mint green with an overblouse of darker green lace.

The couple greeted 160 guests at a wedding supper in Lovett Hall, Greenfield Village, before leaving for a honeymoon in the Grand Bahamas.

They are making their home in Plymouth. The new Mrs. Saulsberry teaches in Farmington Elementary school, Garden City, and her husband, recently discharged from the U.S. Army, is employed at Penn Central, Detroit.

ASSISTING the bridegroom were Edward Palmer as best man and Daniel Sparks, of Detroit, uncle of the bride, and Robert Clark of Plymouth, brother of the bride, as ushers.
