Host of activities set for Finn's May Festival

The Finn's three-day May Festival is set this year to run Friday-Sunday, May 20-22 in the building and on the grounds of Finnish Center, 35200 Eight Mile.

Festival hours are 6:30 p.m. to midnight Friday; noon to midnight Saturday; and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday. The festival offers free entertainment, dancing, a farmers market, games, crafts, food, handmade and imported gifts. Ample parking is available and there is no charge to the grounds.

The opening ceremonies Friday will be followed by a performance of Farmington High School Band. Dancing to live music begins at 9 p.m.

Saturday the farmers market offers produce, plants and flowers. Entertainment runs through the day and evening coming from the Hojaket Finnish Folk Dancers, the Finlandia Male Chorus, the Arpi Swedish Male Chorus and the Scandia Women's Chorus.

Games for children and adults, a white elephant sale, fortune telling and the traditional May Pole dance are scheduled on the grounds. Indoors there at "Roles, Relationships and Sexuality." Fee is $15 per workshop or $30 for all three. Registration information is available by calling the OU Continuum Center, 377-3033.

• "You and Your Aging Parent" — 7:30-9:30 p.m. Wednesday, beginning May 11 in the Avon Township Library. Participants will learn about the myths and realities of the aging process, effective communication techniques and community resources available to help older adults. Fee is $15. To register, call 377-3033.

• Job hunting for teachers — 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, May 21, at the Ramada Inn, Southfield. Former teachers and business professionals will discuss job market research techniques, resume writing and job interviewing skills. Laid-off teachers may attend for half-price. Cost is $40, including lunch and materials. To register, call 377-3033.

• Japanese Cultural Training Seminar — July 7-8 and Sept. 29-30 at Meadow Brook Hall, Avon Township. Participants learn about Japanese business protocol, non-verbal communication patterns characteristic of the Japanese culture, the Japanese decision-making process, differing value systems and communication and strategies necessary for successful business interaction. For more information, call 377-3180.

• Russian tour — July 1-22. Sponsored by OU and the Michigan Consortium for Medieval and Early Modern Studies, the tour will focus on Russian and Ukrainian civilization. For details, call Professor Robert C. Howes, 377-4450.

Harbinger auditions set

Following its year of fiscal and managerial reorganization, the Harbinger Dance Company is now ready to audition dancers for the 1983-84 season. The company plans to hold auditions in Detroit, New York and Ohio.

Harbinger's local audition start 2 p.m. Saturday, May 21, on Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge Campus. The audition will take place in Harbinger's studio, room 303 in Building J.

Applicants are asked to arrive no later than 1:30 p.m. and bring with them a written resume which includes professional references and a recent photograph. The audition will consist of a contemporary technique class and passages of movement from Harbinger's current repertory.

Finalists will be invited to return for an interview and may be called back for a second audition.

Dancers for the 1983-84 season will be offered a 30 week contract with an expected start date of October 15.

For information regarding Harbinger's local and out-of-state auditions, call 477-7014 and ask for Lisa Nowak, artistic director, or Ellen Pisor, general manager.
