

Classic Lanes to host benefit bowling tourney

Classic Lanes in Rochester, along with members of the Avon Hills Lions and Lioness clubs, will sponsor the second annual Pro-Am Tournament for the benefit of Leader Dogs for the Blind.

The bowling tournament will take place Sunday 12:30-4 p.m. Entry fee is $15 per bowler. Each participant will have a chance to play a game with a "pro" bowler.

In addition to the bowling, there will be a raffle, an auction and entertainment.

Interested bowlers can call Classic Lanes at 852-9100.

SPORTS CAMPS

St. Mary's Preparatory and St. Mary's College in Orchard Lake will be featuring three separate athletic camps — boys basketball, girls basketball and football.

Sessions in boys basketball run June 26-July 1; July 17-22; and July 31-Aug. 5. Sessions in girls basketball are July 24-29 and Aug. 7-12. The football session is July 31-Aug. 5.

For information regarding the camps, call St. Mary's College Athletic Department at 682-1885, or write to "Sports Unlimited," St. Mary's College, Orchard Lake, MI 48063.

CHRISTIAN CAGE CAMP

Detroit Pistons center Kent Benson will be the professional instructor at the Michigan Christian basketball camp this summer when the Rochester basketball offers clinics in two different weeks.

Basketball players in the 8-16 age group may select camps either the week of July 18 or July 25. Camp director Garth Pleasant, the head coach of Michigan Christian, is limiting the 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. camp to 50 participants.

Also to be on hand is Brother Rice head coach Nick Conti and the University of Michigan assistant women's coach Steve Hebold.

The camp stresses the fundamentals of basketball and possessing a positive mental attitude. Cost of the five-day session is $75.

For information, call Pleasant at 391-1938, or write him at Michigan Christian College, Rochester, MI 48063.

CHAI RUN

The runners club of the Jewish Community Center of Metropolitan Detroit will sponsor its sixth annual "Chai" Run 8:30 a.m. May 22 at the center's main building on Maple and Drake roads in West Bloomfield.

The run takes its name from the Hebrew word "Chai," which means the number 18 and the word life. The run is a non-competitive, unlimited fun run with distances of one, three, six, nine, 12 or 18 miles. It is open to children and adults.

T-shirts will be given to each entrant, as well as awards to those who complete specific distances. Water will be provided along the running course at two-mile intervals.

Refreshments will be available at the finish. Qualified medical personnel will also be available. For information and application instructions, call the Jewish Community Center, physical education department, at 661-1000.

SAILBOARD EXPO

Sailboard Expo '83 is the theme of Sunday's Board Sailing show sponsored by the Michigan Sailboard Dealers' Association.

The show takes place 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Dodge Park No. 4 on Cass Lake, just west of Pontiac.

The expo is intended for all interested Board Sallers, or Windsurfers. There will be several factory and dealer experts on hand to inform people about the sport and its offerings.

Admission is free. There will be numerous sailboard models on exhibit available for public examination.

GREAT LAKES GOLFING

The Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference conducts its annual conference tournament today and tomorrow at Oakland University's Katke-Cousins Golf Course.

The seven GLIAC teams play 36 holes of golf today and conclude with 18 more tomorrow. The pretournament favorites were Ferris, Wayne State and Saginaw Valley.

Oakland University was fifth last season, and coach George Wibby is hoping for an improvement of at least one place this spring. Southfield's Kevin Antrevo and Bloomfield Hills' Dave Beresh are two members of the team.

NAME YOUR GAME

Whether your game is tennis, horseshoes, shuffleboard or volleyball, the Waterford Oaks Tennis and Court Games Complex provides the facilities.

The reservation center, with vending machines and restrooms, opens May 14, and will be open daily through the Labor Day weekend. Nominal fees are charged for the courts and equipment.

Waterford Oaks features eight wind-screened tennis courts and four platform tennis courts. Singles and doubles tennis leagues are open to men and women of all ability levels. Leagues begin the week of May 13 and run eight weeks.

Sanctioned and unsanctioned tennis tournaments begin Memorial Day weekend with the second annual Great Lakes International, May 28-30.

Private, semi-private and group tennis lessons are offered for persons of all ages and all abilities.

The complex also features 10 horseshoe courts. Instructional clinics and recreational leagues for juniors, women and men are available. Organizational sign-up nights and practices will be May 18, 19, 26 and 30.

Recreational, non-sanctioned horseshoe tournaments will take place the first Sunday of each month, June-August.

The 18 shuffleboard courts at the complex provide recreation for all ages.

Instructional clinics and recreation shuffleboard leagues for juniors, adults and seniors also are available.

Recreation and league volleyball programs are being offered, using the fenced enclosures of the platform tennis courts.

The complex is off Scott Lake Road in Pontiac. For information on any of the activities, call 858-0915, or 858-3433.

Roeper sponsors run in Bloomfield Hills

The Roeperfest 10,000-meter run will be held at 10 a.m. Sunday, May 22, starting at Bloomfield Hills Roeper City and Country School (Woodward, north of Long Lake Road).

Plaques will be awarded for the top finishers in each class, and T-shirts will be given to the first 200 applicants. There is a $5 entry fee.

For further information, call Ernie Rigetti at 642-1500, Ext. 34.

DODGE RUN

The Dodge Five-Mile Run, sponsored by the Tri-County Dodge Dealers and conducted by the Motor City Striders, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 28.

The starting point is the Hart Plaza area, near the Dodge Fountain in downtown Detroit. The race incorporates much of the Detroit Grand Prix Race Course.

Trophies will be awarded to the top five men and women finishers. Medals and certificates also will be given out. The $5 entry fee is due by Sunday, May 22. Late registration is $2 extra.

For further information, write Dodge Race Director, 33200 Edgemoor, Fraser, Mich., 48026.

ZOO RUN

The Run for the Animals race will be held starting at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, June 18.

Sponsored and conducted by the city of Huntington Woods Parks and Recreation and the Motor City Striders, the three-mile race starts and finishes at the Detroit Zoo.

There will be awards and medals presented to the top finishers. There is a $5 entry fee until Friday, June 10. Late registration is $7.

All runners will receive a special pass for free parking and admission to the zoo.

For more information, write to Dr. Edward Kozloff, Huntington Parks and Recreation Department, 26325 Scotia, Huntington Woods, Mich., 48070.

2001 RUN

City officials expect more than 1,000 runners to participate in the Southfield 2001 Run, a 10-kilometer (6.2-mile) run through the streets of Southfield on Sunday, June 12.
