

BIRMINGHAM'S NEW INN HAS SOME OLD FASHIONED IDEAS.

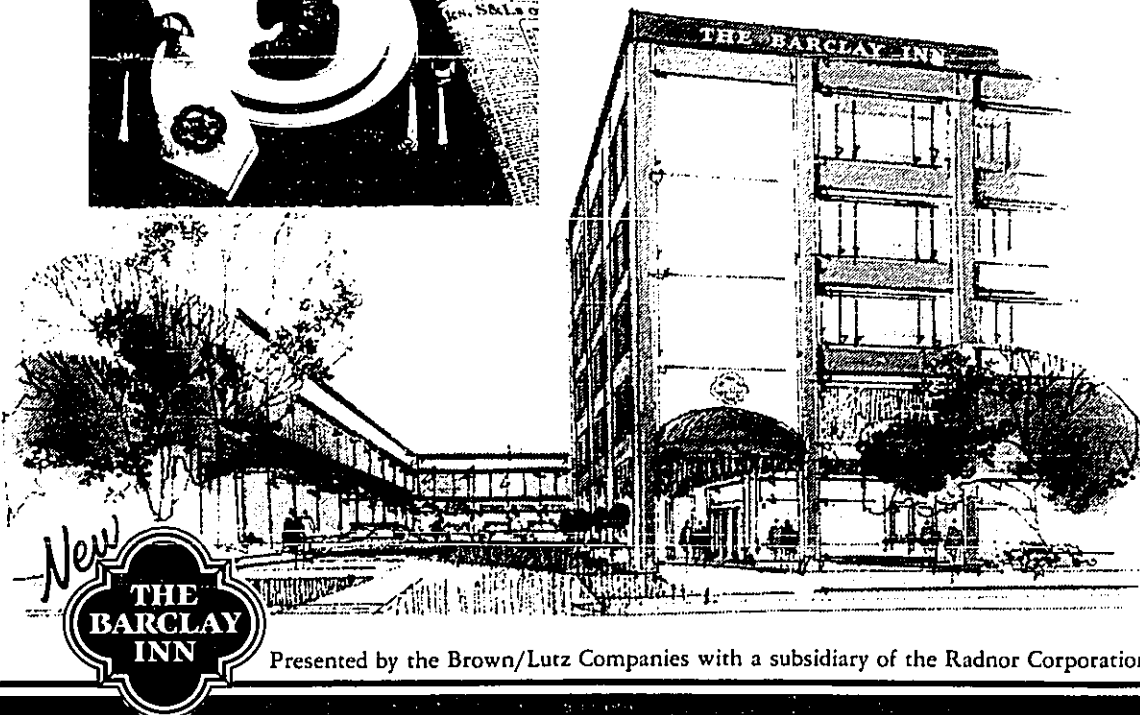

Consider the Barclay Inn your best guest bedroom for out-of-town family and friends.

We'll welcome them to a spacious new room with traditional touches of brass, rich fabrics and warm colors, plus a dozen delightful little surprises like exceptionally thick and thirsty towels.

In the morning, they'll awaken refreshed to find a morning newspaper at their door and a complimentary Continental breakfast awaiting them in the lobby.

Out of a 160-year-old tradition born in Birmingham's original inn comes the Barclay's old-fashioned warmth and hospitality; out of an understanding of today's needs comes our professional efficiency. It is no accident that a stay at the Barclay makes our guests feel like royalty.
