Mayfair schedules registration

Mayfair Co-op Preschool is now taking registrations for both its regular preschool sessions as well as a new five-day program.

The new program is geared for the older preschooler who must wait a year longer to enter kindergarten. It will focus on pre-kindergarten concepts rather than preschool and nursery activities.

Regular preschool registration is open for the 1983-84 school year. Mayfair's facilities are in Orchard United Methodist Church, 30450 Farmington Road.

Terry Eliotson will take registrations and inquiries at 855-4043.

Cooks team up to serve some hot and spicy dishes

Judy Antishin's "Mexican and Southwestern" cooking class, which begins at 7 p.m. Thursday in Farmington Community Center, welcomes Jack McCarthy as special guest for the Mexican-styled fiesta.

McCarthy, a Channel 7 personality as well as a gourmet cook, will greet guests at 6:30 p.m., then join Antishin in preparing one of several Mexican dishes. The menu for the evening will include a version of a recipe from the cookbook, "Jack McCarthy's Restaurant Recipes."

McCarthy, now involved in his own advertising and public relations firm, and once co-anchor for Channel 7 News, is now heading up his own program called "Friday Feast."

ANTISHIN WILL show how to prepare guacamole appetizer and empanada, a Mexican meat pie, that will be served with side dishes of beans and other vegetables.

Following the demonstration and lecture, guests will be served a complete dinner.

The center's spring session of cooking classes conclude Thursday, May 26, with Antishin's "Picnics and Summer Parties" class. Participants will partake in a buffet dinner as Antishin demonstrates the art of preparing make-ahead dishes that are attractive to the eye and pleasing to the palate. Registrations are taken in the center, 24705 Farmington Road, for both classes.
