

It's showtime at North, Harrison

North limbers up for 'Dancin'

Photos by RANDY BORST/staff photographer

Taking their places for a square dance number in "Dancin'" are (kneeling, from left) Aleis Branzel, Mark Moore, Greg Tellner and Julie Bates, and (standing, from left) Cathy Gural, Heather Wallas and Mike Kaniato. The mini-musical has an 8 p.m. curtain on Friday in North Farmington's auditorium.

The Vocal Music Department of North Farmington High School will present "Dancin'", a mini-musical at 8 p.m. on Friday in the school auditorium.

This original show will feature soloists, dancers and choral groups. All will be accompanied by a three-piece jazz rock band. The set is the inside of a 42nd Street dance studio in New York, and the story revolves around dancers and their lives as they rehearse a variety of routines.

One segment of the show depicts the history of American dance with square dances, a Charleston, swing music, 1950s rock and roll and a futuristic dance entitled "Twilight Zone."

The second half of the show revolves around various styles of dance, including tap, jazz, ballet and soft shoe. The award-winning Northern Lites, a 24-voice show choir, will be featured in the second half of the show.

Tickets, at $1 for students and $2.50 for adults, may be purchased at the door.

Sandy Latham and Derek Hood play a couple of flappers in "Dancin'."

Mark Moore practices a number for North Farmington High School's mini-musical.

'You Can't Take It With You'

Bill Smith (seated) and Paul Amendt learn their lines for "You Can't Take It With You" at Farmington Harrison High.

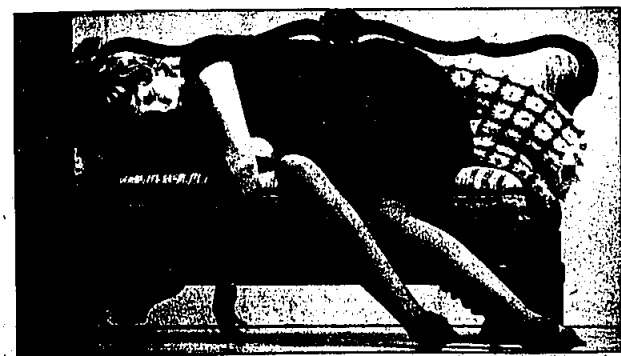

Harrison project

The Farmington Harrison High School Drama Club presents "You Can't Take It With You," a three-act comedy, at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday in the school auditorium.

The play, written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, revolves around the zany antics of the Sycamore family in New York City in the 1930s.

Gretchen Hungerman is directing her first Harrison Drama Club production. She recently received a bachelor of fine arts degree in theater direction from the University of Detroit.

Tickets for the play may be purchased at the door.

Photos by RANDY BORST/staff photographer

Sheryl Clemente rehearses a scene from "You Can't Take It With You," which will be presented Friday and Saturday evenings at Farmington Harrison High School.

home computer fair and sale

Hudson's steers you right into home computers at the right price which one's for me, you ask?

What are you going to use it for, we answer. Your children's educations?

To help you with your job? To help manage your finances including your investments and taxes?

meet Denby the Robot

5-foot tall and a show stopper. He walks, he talks, he'll answer questions.

Be sure to bring the kids along: they'll just love Denby. Check times, locations:

Oakland: Thursday, May 26,

computer demo, 5-9; Denby, 6:30-8:30

Northland: Friday, May 27,

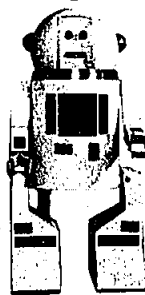

computer demo, 5-9; Denby, 6:30-8:30

attend our Computer Fair and Sale

What's more, you can meet people-in-the-know from Atari, Epson, Commodore and Texas Instruments. If you've got home computer questions; they've got answers. Also, this is your big chance to see, hear and experience more home computers, first hand, than you'd imagined. And they're all on sale. Sale ends May 29. Use our Home Deco Account with up to 24 months to pay.

attend a class on "how to buy a computer":

Oakland: Thursday, May 26, at 7 p.m. No charge; reservations required, call 223-1895

 hudson's *****