

World peace

A concern at gathering

Peace was on the minds of those in attendance at the Peace Gathering Saturday at Our Lady of Sorrows Roman Catholic Church in Farmington.

'Fun' passbooks for the summer

A Summer Fun Passbook is now available at Oakland County parks and golf courses.

Offered for the first time, the booklet contains tickets permitting admittance to dozens of activities including golf, swimming at Wave Action pool, tennis, boating, camping, rides on the Slidewinder water slide and shuffleboard.

For $20, park users will receive a passbook containing more than 35 coupons good for three rounds of golf, two one-day vehicle passes, three hours of platform tennis, two buckets of balls at the driving range, six rides on the Rampage Water Coaster and more.

The total value of the combined coupons is $80.

ACCORDING TO Oakland County Parks manager R. Eric Reickel, the Summer Fun Passbook is designed to encourage increased use of the parks and to introduce more people to the variety of activities and programs offered throughout the nine-park system.

The passbooks are available at the Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission administrative offices at 2600 Watkins Lake road in Pontiac and all of the golf courses and parks (except Orion Oaks).

The parks include Addison Oaks at 1480 W. Romeo Road in Addison Township near Oxford; Glen Oaks on 30500 13 Mile, between Middlebelt and Orchard Lake roads, Farmington Hills; Groveland Oaks on Grange Hall Road at Dixie Highway

Safety administration taught at Madonna

Workmen's Compensation, time management and record-keeping are some of the topics slated for discussion during the Safety Administration Workshop at Madonna College.

It will be at 8:30 a.m. May 31 and June 1-2 in the Commons Hall on campus.

The workshop is being sponsored by the Michigan Department of Labor Safety Education and Training Division and Madonna College.

Other areas of discussion are "Efficient-Effective Training for Employees" and "Affirmative Safety Defenses."

Representatives of Safety Education and Training and associates of the American Society of Safety Engineers will present the topics.

The workshop will be directed by Donna Nott, occupational safety consultant, in cooperation with Andrew Parsons, chairman of Occupational Safety and Health at Madonna.

The $35 program fee includes lunch and all training materials. College credit is available for $65 in addition to the regular fee.

For more information, call Donna Nott, 432-4510 or the Madonna College Continuing Education office, 591-5049.
