Brother Rice wins 'A' tennis regional

Two Birmingham schools — Brother Rice and Seaholm — dominated the class A state tennil regional over the water of the state tennis coaches association, inlahed with five flight champions. The Warriors swept the doubles competition.

Brother Rice won the 18-team regional with 36 points and Seaholm was runner-up with 22. It was Rice's second straight regional title, and the Warriors have now won seven regional championships over the past 10 years.

The regional was kind of what I expected, as ald Rice coach Donald McKercher. "It was kind of like a dual meet between us and Seaholm."

McKercher. "It was kind of like a dual meet between us and Seaholm." The Warriors finished third at last year's state meet and are looking for its first ever state class A champion-ship in Midland on the weekend of June 3-4. By finishing second at the regional, Seaholm also qualified for the state tournament.

The state meet will be very close," said McKercher.

The teams split the four singles matches and Rice dominated in doubles. All seven matches were determined in straight sets.

Rice's Eric Holley won the No. 1 singles title over Seabolm's Mike Jacobsen by identical 6-3 scores and teammate Dan Walsh won the No. 4 crown over Brad Pierce. Seaholm's singles winners were Jamie Peil (No. 2) over Rich Walsh.

The closest doubles match was at the No. 3 position, where Ed Garcia and James McNuity detated Jeff: Kasselman and Bill Dune, 6-3, 6-2, The other and Dave Cogrove (No. 1) over Mike and Dave Cogrove (No. 1) over Mike and Dave Cogrove (No. 1) over Mike Matthews and Dave Fishman and Mike ford Mott. But, it didn't come easy.

The Lakers got a clutch win from Kevin Donase at No. 1 singles to win the body-contested regional with 21 points. Bloomfield Hills Andover, the other state qualifier from that regional, was second with 20 points and Bloomfield Hills Laheer barely missed qualifying by taking third with 19 points.

Rochester was fourth with 11 points and Adams tied for eighth place with three points.

"It was not a regional I expected to win," said Laker coach Greg Kopec, whose team finished fourth in the state last year. "We trailed Andover by one point going into the second day, it was one of the more exciting regionals I've ever been involved with."

Andover's Jon Loomis was winning the third set of his No. 1 battle with Donase, 5-2. Donase made a move and captured five straight games to win the title and give the Lakers the regional championathp. Donase won by scores of 6-7, 7-6, 7-5.

At No. 2 singles, West Bloomfield's Joe Scavone defeated Andover's Paul Vrzal in straight sets, 6-0, 6-1.
