

Falcons fly in regional meets

Rochester High flexed its track and field muscles in regional competition at Troy Athens Saturday as both teams finished first and qualified for the state meet in 11 events.

The boys paced the 16-team field with 108 points to edge Southfield High by one point, and the girls won with 100 points to better second-place finisher Seaholm by 23 points.

The top three finishers in each event qualified for the Class A state meet, which will be run June 4 at Jackson High School.

In the boys' regional, Robert Hess was a double winner for Rochester with firsts in the long jump (21-9 1/4) and 100-meter dash (10.8). Teammate Jeff Zurborg won the 400 (50.6), Terry Whitt was first in the 200 (22.0), and the Falcons won two relays with a 3:21.3 in the mile and a 1:30.4 in the 800.

Southfield's Glen Williams was first in both hurdle races, with a time of 14.0 in the 100 high and a 38.3 in the 300 lows.

The Blue Jays also won the 400 relay in 45.5.

Terry, which finished third with 74 points, had a regional champ in Derek Perry, who won the shot put with a heave of 55-2. Brother Rice, the fourth-place finisher with 41 points, had three regional champs. Mike Boroski won the discus (158-2), John McCleary was the 800 runner (1:55.3) and Joe Davey was first in the 3,200 run (9:14.6).

Eric Wittenberg was Birmingham Seaholm's lone champ as he zipped through the 1000 dash in 12.4.

Alla Newman qualified in two events as she placed second in the 1,600 (5:27.0) and 3,200 (11:58.0).

Country Day finished third in regional action last year, and fifth overall in the state meet.

COUNTRY DAY'S boys' team also finished fourth in the Class C Capac Regional, and qualified three individuals and two relay teams for the state meet.

Detroit St. Martin dePorres was first in the 15-team field with 104 points, followed by Lutheran West (89), Lutheran East (58) and Country Day (31).

Hiram Jackson qualified for the state meet in two events, as he was second in the shot put (54-1) and third in the discus (138-8). Chuck Adams was the discus event (142-7), and Damon Jones was second in the long jump (21-4).

Country Day was second in the 400 relay (44.8) and fourth in the 800 (1:32.0) with Reggie Holmes, Jones, Troy Hutton and Adams. Although the 800 relay team finished fourth, it qualified for the state meet by virtue of its time.

Other medalists were Doug Howell (fourth in shot put), Tom Kerns (fifth in the 1,600) and Ted Berry (sixth in the 3,200).

AVONDALE FINISHED second at the girls' Class B Oxford Regional with 84 points, quite a distance from champion L'Anse Creuse, which racked up 107 points.

The Yellowjackets will send seven events (representing seven events) to the Class B state meet in Caro.

Kim Woods qualified in two events with a first in the discus (119-0) and a second in the shot put (33-2 1/2). Michelle Engelberts was third in the high jump (5-0). Laura Gavel placed third in the shot put (32-11 1/2) and Paula Buckhauer was second in the 200 (26.1).

Cindy Jonson, Amy Cosgrove and

Kay and Paula Buckhauer made up the first-place 400 relay (50.5) and second-place 800 relay (1:46.9).

Other Avondale medalists were Gavel (fourth in the discus), Kay Buckhauer (fifth in the 100), Val Johnson (sixth in the shot put) and the sixth-place 1,600 relay team (Cosgrove, Kay Buckhauer, Missy Mattiello and Dyan Martin).

CRANBROOK PLACED third in the boys' portion of the Oxford Regional, thanks to the help of Robert Berkley, who qualified in two individual events and one relay.

The Cranes picked up 72 points to finish behind Marysville (108) and Dearborn Heights Robichaud. Cherry Hill was fourth (65) and Avondale fifth (49).

Berkeley was third in the long jump (20-3) and 400 (50.8), and joined Wes Workman, Cliff Wilson and Mark Bedford on the third-place 800 relay team (1:32.0).

Mark Kring finished second in the 1,600 (4:24.8) and third in the 800 (1:58.2). Teammate Justin Hart was second in the 800 (1:55.2).

In field events, Greg Brown tied for second with a 5-11 high jump, and Mike Ritter was third with a 12-7 pole vault.

Avondale's Hank Woodward qualified in two individual events and two relays to pace the Yellowjackets. Woodward's best defensive state champ Luther (1:51.6), and Damon Jones was second in the long jump (21.6) and was a member of the second-place 800 (1:31.3) and third-place 400 (44.6) relay teams.

Other medalists were Charles Love

(fourth in the 100), Fred Kachler (fifth in the pole vault), McBroom (fifth in the 400), Charles Love (sixth in the 400) and the 1,600 relay team of Flowers, Pat Corrigan, Kapanowski, McBroom and Kapanowski.

Woodmore's Devon Price, Carl

Flowers and Brian McBrown tied a school record, and ran with Dave Kapanowski, Charles Love and Tracy Johnson on the 400 relay team.

Kapanowski placed third in a new school record time of 30.1.

Other medalists were Charles Love (fourth in the 100), Fred Kachler (fifth in the pole vault), McBroom (fifth in the 400), Flowers (sixth in the 400) and the 1,600 relay team of Flowers, Pat Corrigan, Kapanowski, McBroom and Kapanowski.
