

Second runs Tom Panzenhagen

WHAT'S IT WORTH? A ratings guide to the movies

Bad . . . . .	$1
Fair . . . . .	$2
Good . . . . .	$3
Excellent . . . . .	$4

brates the simple joys of life. James Stewart, Lionel Barrymore, Thomas Mitchell, Henry Travers and a young and very beautiful Donna Reed star.

The film is another in a series of free, Tuesday screenings at the Pumph & Judy. Future offerings include "The Wild One" (June 7) and "Invasion of the Body Snatchers" (June 21).

Rating: $3.50.

"The Sound of Music" (1965), 8 p.m. Friday on Ch. 4. Originally 174 minutes.

Julie Andrews isn't everyone's cup of sugar but she does excel in this Rodgers and Hammerstein, Oscar-winning musical of the Von Trapp family. Christopher Plummer and Eleanor Parker costar.

Rating: $2.

"A Man for All Seasons" (1956), 1 p.m. Sunday on Ch. 50. Originally 120 minutes.

Straight and to the point: "A Man for All Seasons" is one of the best films ever made. Fred Zinnemann ("From Here to Eternity," "Julia") directs screenplay by Robert Bolt ("Lawrence of Arabia," "Dr. Zhivago"), starring Paul Scofield, Robert Shaw, Orson Welles, Susannah York, Vanessa Redgrave and Wendy Hiller. Oscars for Zinnemann, Scofield and the film.

Bolt's script magnificently brings to life the debate that surrounded the formation of the Church of England by Henry VIII and stimulates lively thought in the process. It galvanizes one with its vivid recreations of 16th century life and speech, and provides all the aspects of a good thriller — danger, tension, intrigue and surprise.

Rating: $3.50.

Youth Choir holds auditions

Auditions for the '83-84 season of the Livonia Youth Choir will be held from 7:30-8:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Bentley High School Music Room, 18100 Hubbard at Five Mile Road, Livonia.

Students from Livonia and its surrounding communities are being invited to audition. For further information, call 591-1408.

Any student who will be in the fifth or sixth grade next fall is eligible to audition for the elementary division of the choir.

Polka bands wanted for festival contest

Polka bands are being invited to compete this year at the Polish Festival Aug. 12-14 at Hart Plaza in downtown Detroit.

Polka bands from across the state of Michigan are being encouraged to participate all three days before an audience of thousands. Cash prizes will be awarded to the three best bands.

Any established polka band interested in participating should send a brief resume of its group and musical involvement to Polka Band Competition, 1828 Huntington Blvd., Grosse Pointe 48236. Deadlines is Saturday, June 18. A phone number should be included.

Among bands planning to participate are Crystal Blue; Chris, Jack and Music; and New Fonics.

THIS YEAR a fifth stage will be added to provide continuous live entertainment for the more than 700,000 people expected to attend.

Other events will be the return appearance of Las Vegas Polish singer Krzysztof Kravczyk; the Miss Polish Festival pageant Friday evening, Aug. 12; and daily Masses with a special tribute to St. Francis of Assisi on Sunday, Aug. 14. A Sunday evening concert will feature the Polish Chorus, the Redford Symphony, along with a pianist and a ballet troupe.

A display of Polish culture and history including an array of ornate Polish costumes from various regions of Poland will be in the Ethnic Gallery. Dancers will entertain, and dancing will be available for all, plus a polka dance contest. Craft demonstrations take place Saturday and Sunday in the Ethnic Gallery. Polish food also will be featured.

Riverboat race to benefit PAL

The venerable Bob Lo boats will show off at 6 p.m. Friday, with radio personality J.P. McCarthy and TV newscaster Bill Bonds at the helms, in the annual Great Detroit Riverboat Race.

Tickets are $5 and all proceeds will be donated to the Detroit Police Athletic League, for Detroit-area youth participating in programs sponsored by PAL.

Tickets are available at Galligan's, Lindell A.C., McCarthy's Party, Nemo's, New Hellas and Woodbridge Tavern, or by calling the Police Athletic League at 935-3312.

Last year's race produced almost $35,000 for PAL, said Dick "Night Train" Lane, PAL executive director.
