Youths win DAR awards

Brownies in Larkshire Elementary School troops are now holders of National Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Awards. Brownie Troop 3741 took the award for its video display shadowbox and Troop 583 for its large mural of U.S. landmarks.

The girls won the honors from the National Society DAR Junior American Citizen Committee, established in 1906 to install good citizenship in children. It does this by teaching loyalty to the country and by giving practical ideas in the ways of serving home, community, school and country.

Troop members, who are all Girl Scouts now, took the awards at the end-of-the-year Fly-Up Ceremonies from Sally Kirsten, who is junior membership chairwoman of Three Flags Chapter DAR.
