

The idea in bunco is to roll the dice but not get three threes. That's what Emily Oblign rolled.

Staff photos by Stephen Cantrell

They viewed a fashion show with a touch of humor. The model is Dan Stencil of the Oakland County Parks and Recreation Department.

Bob Pigula leads an active sing-along.

It was their time for fun, games

MORE THAN 350 men and women affiliated with senior citizen organizations in Oakland County turned out for the annual Senior Citizen Summerfest last week at the Troy Community Center.

On the agenda were a continental breakfast, a fashion show for and modeled by seniors, lunch, musical entertainment, a sing-along and bunco, which is a game of chance played with dice.

The event was sponsored by the Northwest Recreation and Parks Association, which is composed of parks and recreation units in communities throughout Oakland County. Troy, Rochester, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Bloomfield Township, Southfield, West Bloomfield and Farmington are among those communities represented.

"We thought it went real well," said Kathy Crawford of the Novi Parks and Recreation Department, a coordinator of the event. "Everybody seemed to have a good time."

The sing-along, directed by Bob Pigula "was especially fun and almost everyone participated," she said. "They sang mostly action-type songs."

Music was also provided by Cliff and Hazel Agnew, known as The Playmates, playing banjo and organ.

Other event coordinators were Dan Stencil of the Oakland County Parks and Recreation Department and Ken Schwarck of the Lyons Parks and Recreation Department.

Mary Glist and her buddies join in the singing.

INSIDE ANGLES

KUDOS to the Farmington High School Forensic team, coached by Gina Van Horn, for being one of the most productive teams in the area. They filled a trophy case with their 17 trophies and seven certificates. Placing were Tami Horne; Doug Giszczynski placed third along with Tim McHugh and Beth Sherman. A multiple entitled "Hi Teach" received a second, by John Asselin. At Ladipolo, Laura Beattie, Bruce Abernathy, Kathy Hult and Lisa Samara. Doug Giszczynski received a second place in storytelling at Regionals in April.

PAT BRADLEY retired from his position as Scoutmaster for Troop 45 with special tributes coming from Scouts, parents, friends, local and state legislators. He has been Scoutmaster of the troop for the past two years. But no one could remember how many years he has assisted in a variety of capacities for both the Cubs and the Scouts who meet in First United Methodist Church of Farmington.

SKATERS' DREAM — a free skate, that's correct, a free skate. Bonaventure Skating Rink on Halsted Road in Farmington Hills is inviting any and all to come to the rink 5-5 p.m. today, Monday, and be admitted for free. The only cost will be a $1 rental charge if you don't have your own skates.

CONGRATULATIONS to Ronald James Russom, son of Lamar and Ethel Russom of Farmington and a 1978 graduate of Farmington High School, who completed the requirements for the dean's list at the University of Michigan-Dearborn School of Management. His grade point average for the winter term 1983 was 3.45.

THE NATIONAL BICYCLE League Qualifier takes place at the Waterford Oaks County Park Bicycle Motocross Track, at noon Saturday, July 2. Winners of the qualifier will compete in the state race in Lansing Saturday, Aug. 6. For more information, call 838-0916.

THE FARMINGTON YMCA Youth Leader Club and their families attended their first annual recognition dinner June 14. The club provides volunteer services to assist in skills in its young members. All members were awarded patches and certificates for their participation in the club this past year. Sally Minehart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Minehart of Farmington Hills, received an award recognizing her effort for the most volunteer hours. Sally contributed 514 hours this past year. A close second was her brother Eric, with 510 volunteer hours. The club officers receiving a plaque were Raj Mangrulkar, Leona Mangrulkar and Dan Matusewicz. In addition the club honored their advisor, Becky Martines, with a dozen roses for her effort in establishing and supporting the club during the past year.

ELISSA GARTENBERG, daughter of Sydney and Susan Gartenberg of Farmington Hills, was recipient of two awards from Detroit Country Day School at the eighth-grade graduation ceremony. Elissa received a science award for her project entered in both her school fair and in the Metropolitan Science Fair. The project was entitled "Is That Pill Safe?" She also received a gold medal in poetry for her original interpretation of "Madeline" in which she used different hats to express the characters in the poem. Elissa was a drama student at Cranbrook Theatre School and will attend Actor Alliance at Lycee International School in Southfield this summer. Her poem, "Sailing on the Silver Water," was published in the Detroit Country Day School literary magazine Potpourri.

REPTILES ARE FASCINATING creatures and an important part of man's natural history. On Friday, July 1, residents of Oakland County are invited to "Scaly Tales," a nature interpretive program at Independence Oaks County Park. The 7:30-9 p.m. program will feature worldwide North American and Michigan reptiles in an effort to dispel fears and misconceptions about snakes, turtles and similar creatures. Live reptiles will be used for demonstration, with an accompanying slide show. Participants are urged to bring mosquito repellent and meet at the Twin Chimneys Shelter. Pre-registration is required. Independence Oaks County Park is near Clarkston on Sashabaw Road, north of I-75. For more information, call 625-0877.

JEFFREY F. PERRIN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Perrin of Farmington Hills, has been selected as the Outstanding Alumnus from his college fraternity, Delta Sigma Phi, at Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio. He graduated in 1982 with a bachelor of arts degree in business and theater. He has also been admitted to the Order of Omega, which is a National Honor Society award for outstanding achievement among fraternities and sororities. He currently is employed as the senior leadership consultant for Delta Sigma Phi National Headquarters.

RICHARD WILSON, counselor at North Farmington High School, and Marge Kalec, counselor at Farmington High School, recently attended a meeting at Madonna College, sponsored by the admissions office. New academic requirements for entering students were discussed as well as financial aid and major programs of study.

FRED HUGHES, mayor of Farmington Hills, reappointed Margaret Downs and Susan Remmel to the Board of Canvassers at the June 20 City Council meeting.

fresh Changes hudson's white sale

Select new sheets, cases, comforters, pillows to give your bedroom an individual air. Splash color in your bath with bright new towels, rugs, shower curtains and accessories. Dress up your table with stunning new tablecloths, place mats and napkins. Give your windows a fresh outlook with pretty curtains. Hudson's White Sale offers a lot of quick changes, all especially inviting values right now. Come see today!

Shown, Evening Lilacs by Bill Bliss for Springmaid. Flat/tufted sheet, twin, reg. $18, sale $13.99. Twin bedspread, reg. $90, sale $69.99. Other sizes and accessories at similar savings.

hudson's