Harold Lee Ward, 86, one-time Orchard Lake and Pontiac resident and prominent businessman and benefactor, died Sunday in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

"He was a very kind gentleman, devoted to his family, and a wonderful father," said his daughter, Virginia Gold.

Born on March 28, 1897, Mr. Ward was the son of Willis E. Ward and the grandson of David Lee Ward, who both were prominent in many Orchard Lake activities.

With his father and sister, the late Maryjorie Ward Strong, Mr. Ward donated the land for the establishment of the club in 1926. He followed his father as president of the club during the organization's initial five years.

Mr. Ward was active in real estate and family investments, such as a California timber company, from his Orchard Lake offices. He was active in the community and was a member of the University of Michigan. He was involved with St. Mary's College, where

In memory of his father and mother, he donated 40 acres of woods and wildflowers to the Cranbrook Institute of Science in 1969 for establishment of a nature sanctuary. He added another 15 acres to the gift in 1978, aiming "to preserve and appreciate the world of nature as God made it."

MR. WARD was a 1915 graduate of Hill School of Pottstown, Pa., (high school) where he was ranked first in his class.
