

Second runs

Tom Panzenhagen

A new season begins at the Punch & Judy Theatre in Grosse Pointe Farms on Friday. That's a fair drive for most Observer & Eccentric readers, but the film fare often is worth the effort.

In addition to screening new and rarely seen films, the Punch offers classic films on Wednesdays and Thursdays through Thursday, Sept. 29, bargain prices every Tuesday, and free admission the first Tuesday of every month.

The Punch is at 21 Kercheval, two miles from I-94 between Cadieux and Moross. Admission is $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for children under 12 and senior citizens, $3 for double features and special premieres; however, a discount admission card, valid for all shows, is available and provides 10 admissions for $20.

For more information or to receive a schedule of films, call 882-7353.

WHAT'S IT WORTH?

A ratings guide to the movies

Bad	$1
Fair	$2
Good	$3
Excellent	$4

"Bedtime Story" (1984), 1 p.m. Friday on Ch. 50. Originally 99 minutes. How did Marlon Brando ever get himself into "Bedtime Story"? For that matter, what are David Niven and Shirley Jones doing in this archaic film about playboys who wager on which of them can bed a budding debutante first? The script has "sophisticated comedy" written all over it, but it's difficult to conceive of who ever could have considered this film sophisticated or funny.

Rating: 5 cents.

"My Friend Flicka" (1943), 11:30 a.m. Sunday on Ch. 50. Originally 89 minutes.

Preston Foster plays a rancher disturbed by his son's attraction to a half-breed horse in this Harold Schuster film. The Arlan principles of the superiority of thoroughbreds espoused by Foster are so given the year this film was made and one wonders whether that philosophy was tangential to the plot or whether the screenwriter purposely introduced it in order to de-rate. "Flicka" is an entertaining film for the entire family. Roddy McDowall plays the American rancher's son; don't ask why he as an English accent. Jeff Corey co-stars.

Rating: $2.90.

Escape to freedom

Mary Cameron Bitel is Miss Melissa, who helps Allen T. Sheffield as Obie escape to freedom on the underground railroad in Aundrea Harris' "Steel Away Home." The play, recommended for children age 5 and older, will be presented at Wayne State University's Hilberry Summer Theatre Festival at 1 p.m. Mondays and at 10:30 a.m. Tuesdays-Thursday from July 12-28. Tickets at $2 each, or $1 for groups of 10 or more, are available at the Hilberry box office, Cass and Hancock, phone 577-2972.

Crystal Gallery reopens

"Sunday Afternoon" will reopen the Detroit Institute of Arts' newly restored Crystal Gallery from 1-4 p.m. Sunday and will continue each Sunday, year round, excepting holidays.

Area pianist Ross Bonnier will perform light classics and jazz, as well as current popular music and the best of Broadway, at the antique grand piano especially selected for Crystal Gallery. Guests will be offered a menu of pastries, desserts, exotic coffees and teas, and a variety of specialty beverages — champagne cocktails, bloody marys, mimosaes, and others — with prices ranging from $1.50-$4. Cover charge is $1.50 per person. No reservations are necessary.

Crystal Gallery, closed for six months, has been completely restored to the neo-classic style of its original opening in 1926. Located in the upper level of the theater, the four-story room is mirrored at each end, reflecting period tole chandeliers and floor-to-ceiling velvet wall and window drapery against faux marble wall detail.
