

recreation news

Each week the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department will present a synopsis of upcoming activities in this column. For further information regarding our programs, contact our office at 474-6115.

RECREATION CENTERS — Eight community playground sites are now open through Thursday, Aug. 4. Supervised activities will include games, sports activities, arts and crafts and special events. All activities will include boys and girls ages 6-13 (must have completed first grade). The morning sites will be Forest, Kenbrook, Larkshire and Longacre, and they will be open from 9:30 a.m. to noon. The afternoon sites will include Flanders, Grace, Woodcreek and Wooddale and they will be open 1-3:30 p.m. There is no fee for this activity.

CAMP RAINBOW — Camp Rainbow is a summer day camp for all mentally and physically impaired individuals. The program operates Monday through Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. and offers a wide variety of recreational activities. Daily activities will incorporate socialization skills, gross and fine motor coordination and self-awareness. Additional activities will include swimming, field trips and overnight camping during specific sessions. The first session will begin July 18 and take place at Oakland Community College, Orchard Ridge campus. The camper registration fee is $38 per person.

RECREATION OPEN SWIM — We host open swim at North Farmington and Farmington High Schools on a Monday-through-Thursday basis. The pools are between 1 and 3 p.m. The fee is 75 cents for children and teens and $1 for adults. You must be 38 inches to the chin to swim alone or you must be accompanied by an adult.

SENIOR ADULT VOLLEYBALL — Our senior adult center continues to host open volleyball on Thursdays at 1:45 p.m. The group meets for one hour for recreational play and exercise. Loose clothing is recommended.

KID'S DAY — The fourth annual Kid's Day celebration is scheduled for Saturday, July 9, at City Park. Activities will begin at noon and continue through 8 p.m. Events will include pony rides, games, petting zoo, entertainment, clowns, sports, mobile, magicians, the Farmington Community Band and more.

STROKE CLUB — The senior adult center continues to host activities for those looking for recreational and social activities. Stroke patients are welcome to join our group on Tuesdays at 11 a.m. at the Mercy Conference Center. Activities include socialization, discussion groups, exercise, swimming, trips and more. For further information, contact Loretta Conway at the senior adult center.

Jaycee vice president Tapped for post

Terry Sever of Farmington Hills has been elected as one of 11 national vice presidents of the U.S. Jaycees during the 63rd annual meeting of the leadership training organization.

Sever, 32, just completed his term as president of the Michigan Jaycees. In his capacity as a national vice president, Sever will advise the Michigan Jaycees, as well as four other state organizations. He will offer advice and motivation to Jaycees in his assigned states. He also will help decide national Jaycee policy during the next 12 months as part of the 18-member executive committee and the 60-member executive board of directors.

A native of Detroit, Sever attended Oakland Community College in Farmington Hills and Wayne State University. He joined the Jaycees in 1973. He held two local offices and served the Michigan Jaycees as district director, and membership portfolio manager prior to his state presidential term.

Sever owns and operates TL Printing Co. in Farmington.

Food service chief honored

Carl Christoph of Farmington Hills, director of food services at Eastern Michigan University, has been awarded third place in the 1983 Menu Exchange Contest sponsored by the National Association of College and University Food Services (NACUFS).

Christoph will receive his award Tuesday, July 5, at the NACUFS national convention in Atlanta.

The food service association holds an annual contest to select the best college food service menus in the nation. Christoph was cited for his creative marketing approach to presenting menus in EMU's Huron Hideaway. His award marks the first time that EMU's food services have been selected among the national finalists in the competition.

He has been director of food services at EMU since March 1980. Prior to his EMU appointment, he was employed by the University of Michigan and Stouffer Foods Corp.

Christoph is a registered dietician and holds a bachelor's degree from Michigan State University and a master's degree from EMU.
