Shelter band presents a different kind of rock

The rock band Shelter will perform at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Rochester High School auditorium, 180 E. Livernois, Rochester.
 Doors open at 7 p.m. Tickets are $5 at the door, $4.50 in advance and $4 for groups of 10 or more. For ticket information, call Shelter at 681-0442 or Street Level Productions of Rochester at 653-0045.
 Shelter was formed five years ago by a group of young musicians. In its songs, the band addresses tough subjects of life in modern times and comments on them with scriptural morals and principles.

 Shelter has just finished a long road trip of the Southern United States. Its first LP, in current release, is "Prophecy and Clowns," recorded in Los Angeles at the Whitefield studio.
 This is the band's first concert in the Oakland County area. Also appearing Saturday with Shelter is folk singer Bob Holt, pastor at the New Life Chapel in Rochester.
