

what's at the movies

BREATHLESS (R). Richard Gere and Valerie Kaprisky are passionate lovers running from the police after Gere kills a policeman in this remake of the Jean-Luc Goddard classic 1959 film, "A Bout de Souffle."

FLASHDANCE (R). A determined young woman works as a welder by day and a dancer by night. Movie doesn't make too much sense but the dancing makes a terrific impact.

OCTOPUSSY (PG). Roger Moore is again the dapper Agent 007 as he goes to India to crack an international jewel-smuggling operation in this 15th James Bond adventure. Also with Maud Adams.

PORKY'S — THE NEXT DAY (R). Raunchy gang members from Angel Beach High School tangle with school administrators, corrupt officials and their own active libidos.

PSYCHO II (R). After 22 years in a mental hospital, Norman Bates (Anthony Perkins) returns to reopen the Bates Motel. Vera Miles, of the original cast, also returns in this sequel to Hitchcock's chiller.

RETURN OF THE JEDI (PG). Third chapter in the middle section of George Lucas' "Star Wars" trilogy. With Luke Skywalker, Hans Solo, Princess Leia and other characters from the previous films as the Rebel Alliance battles Darth Vader and the forces of the Empire.

SUPERMAN III (PG). Action, comedy and romance are on tap as Superman (Christopher Reeve) and Lois Lane (Margot Kidder) battle an evil entrepreneur and a computer genius. Cast also includes Richard Pryor, Robert Vaughn and Annette O'Toole.

TRADING PLACES (R). What happens when Dan Aykroyd, a wealthy executive, meets up with Eddie Murphy, a poor kid from the ghetto?

LA TRAVIATA (G). Franco Zeffirelli wrote, designed and directed this sumptuous version of Verdi's opera with opera stars Teresa Stratas, Placido Domingo and Cornell MacNeil.

TWILIGHT ZONE (PG). Four uncanny and bizarre stories inspired by Rod Serling's vintage television series. The episodes are directed by four different directors, one of whom is Steven Spielberg.

WAR GAMES (PG). A teen-age computer whiz kid (Matthew Broderick) accidentally taps into the command system of a military defense network and triggers a world crisis.

YELLOWBEARD (PG). A wild pirate spoof with a crazy-quit cast including the Monty Python group — Peter Boyle, Marty Feldman (in his last performance), Cheech and Chong, and James Mason.

holocaust and start a brave, new world? The execution of that theme isn't nearly so clichéd as the theme itself in this George Pal production. And don't judge the award-winning special effects by today's standards.
Rating: $2.85.

"National Velvet" (1945), 1 p.m.

Sunday on Ch. 50. Originally 125 minutes.

Fresh-faced, firm-thighed, 13-year-old Elizabeth Taylor stars as a budding equestrian in this enjoyable family film. Mickey Rooney overacts as a fear-struck jockey, but Donald Crisp, Anne Revere and Angela Lansbury provide ample support, especially Revere as Taylor's stern-faced, warmhearted mum.
Rating: $2.90.

"Summer of '42" (1971), 1 Monday night on Ch. 7. Originally 102 minutes.

Moviegoers were gripped by a nostalgia craze in the early '70s, and "Summer of '42," along with such films as "The Way We Were" and "American Graffiti," transported us back in time. Jennifer O'Neill stars as a war widow who provides an idle youth with memories he'll never forget. O'Neill can't act but she's icy hot as the object of Gary Grimes' affection.

"Deadline USA" (1952), 2 Monday night on Ch. 4. Originally 87 minutes.

Humphrey Bogart stars as a crusading newspaperman in a warmed-over story that's chockablock with great one-liners like "Journalism isn't the noblest profession but it's the best," and "The difference between a reporter and a journalist is that a reporter is a witness to a story while a journalist is the hero of it." Kim Hunter, Ethel Barrymore, Ed Begley and Jim Backus co-star.
Rating: $2.90.

A Holiday Special: either "Peter Pan" by James M. Barrie or "A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens — Dec. 24, 8-11, 14, 16-18.

"The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie" by Jay Allen, adapted from the novel by Muriel Spark — Jan. 27-29, Feb. 3-5.

"The Lion and the Jewel" by Wole Soyinka — March 2-4, 9-11.

"More Steps in Time" — an original musical theater revue in the tradition of last season's "Steps in Time" — April 27-29, May 4-6.

Currently the theater is presenting its annual Summer Theatre Festival at the Hilberry Theatre and the Studio Theatre downstairs. "See How They Run," "Key Exchange," "Dial 'M' for Murder," "The Runner Stumbles" and "Steal Away Home" — a play for children — are being performed in rotating repertory through Saturday, Aug. 6.

Revelers will celebrate at cosmic Warp Bash

An extraterrestrially extravagant Warp Bash is scheduled for takeoff at 9 p.m. Friday from the Roostertail on the Detroit River.

The benefit is for the Attle Theatre's current production of "WARP." The event will feature cosmic cuisine, served by solar-power chefs from "space stations," a cash bar, and dancing to the synthesized sound of the Technolites.

Cost for the event is $25.

Bashers are being invited to participate in a Cosmic Costume Contest, where prizes will be awarded. Masks, antennae and customized makeup will be available for those who desire a cosmic transformation.

FIRST PRIZE is a trip for two to the Stratford Theatre Festival's production of "Tartuffe," starring Brian Bedford.

Second prize is an evening with one of two interplanetary superstars, the intrepid Lord Cumulus or the intrepid Insect Sorceress, Valaria, at the Shell restaurant in Detroit's Greektown.

Third prize is tickets for two to the preview performance of the first three shows of the Attle Theatre's upcoming season — "How I Got That Story," "Strider" and "Awake and Sing." Honorable mentions also will be awarded.
