Jigsaw teams will compete

Two Farmington-area residents will team up in search of the perfect fit during the second annual National Jigsaw Puzzle Championships here Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 20-21.

Earlene Newman and Tiki Luetsow will join up to 1,000 puzzlers from across the nation competing for prizes of $1,000, $750 and $500 to be awarded winners in two categories: singles and doubles teams.

The championships finals will be at the Dairy Barn, Southeastern Ohio Cultural Arts Center, which is sponsoring the event with the Athens Area Chamber of Commerce. Hallmark Cards Inc. is corporate sponsor.

Specially made Springbok puzzles, manufactured by Hallmark, will challenge the contestants in semifinals and finals rounds. Both designs and die-cuts of the puzzles will remain in a guarded secret place until the championships begin.

Entry forms are available from participating Hallmark stores and by writing to the Dairy Barn, P.O. Box 747, Athens, Ohio 45701. The deadline for entering is Wednesday, Aug. 10.
A display of 100 puzzle designs by amateurs and leading artists and photographers will be exhibited during the championships. Antique jigsaw puzzles dating from the 18th century also will be on display.
