

Alleged King Slayer Fights Extradition To U.S.

LONDON — Chief Magistrate Frank Milton granted the order for extradition of James Earl Ray to the United States. Ray is wanted in this country for the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King. Ray was given the right to legal aid to appeal the decision within the required 15 days. Ray's attorney had pleaded that the murder of King had been a political act, hence not a legal reason for extradition. The judge refused to accept this. A British lawyer representing the U.S. said, "There is not a shred of evidence to show that the murder took place to further the ends of a larger enterprise."

WORLD ROUNDUP

PARIS — Averell Harriman, U.S. Ambassador in the Paris peace talks, thanked Hanol for its decision to free three American pilots. Harriman hopes this is a move toward future progress in the peace talks. The North Vietnamese Ambassador Xuan Thuy accepted the thanks but insisted there was not one "centimeter" of progress made.

MOSCOW — Ambassadors from Britain, France and the U.S. each delivered notes of protest to the Soviet government, urging them to ease the East German restriction on travel into Berlin.

In answer to the pleas of "fulfilling their international obligation to assure freedom of access to Berlin," the Russians said East Germany "has a right to protect its territory."

PARIS — American negotiators feel that North Vietnam does not trust the U.S. military promises that American troops will be pulled out of South Vietnam as soon as possible after a peace settlement.

The problem is still deadlocked, after seven weeks of negotiation, with neither side showing inclination to make a move that would lead to a break.

PARIS — Red China openly supported the rioting students and striking workers in France's social strife last month. And French students who label themselves Mao Tse-tung admirers, played a crucial role in provoking the six-week university upheaval.

However, there is little evidence that Red China actually was directly involved. According to available estimates the Maoist wing of the French party has about 1,000 members.
