Lee Martilla, of Ravenscroft, won't celebrate his birthday on June 25 alone anymore. He now has a new nephew to share it with him.

Matthew Michael Martilla, grandson of Peg and Court, weighed in at seven pounds, nine ounces—parents' names, Donna and Michael—two sisters, Patti, three, and Maria, who will be celebrating her first birthday on July 8. Their home is in Romulus and we wish all the best to the new addition.

ANOTHER July birthday in the Martilla family belongs to Tom who celebrated his July 2. Every year on the Fourth, two friends celebrate their birthdays, together—Sue Hage and Martha Crockett. Congratulations to all.

Don't wait too long to get around to saying farewell to the Douglas family, on Northwick, as their moving date is around the middle of the month. They aren't going too far though since they will be trying apartment living in the City of Farmington.

IF YOU HAPPENED to see someone around this week who reminded you of Lars Egwell, who was a foreign exchange student at North Farmington High and lived with the Watsons, it was probably he. Lars got out of the Swedish Army on June 28 and on the evening of July 1 was back in Farmington. July 6 is the date that Lars, Ron and another friend are leaving for a month's tour of the west, or as long as Ron can last and their money holds out.

JIM DONAHUE, of Briarton, had business to take care of in the east and the rest of the family—wife, Barbara and children, David and Cathy—went along. They left June 24 to visit former neighbors and friends in West Virginia. Jim finished his business, joined them for a few days and they all returned on Sunday, June 30.

Mrs. Letha Cummins, of Briarton, is seriously ill in a hospital and if you would care to send a get-well card, her daughter, Maxine Morris, will be happy to see that she gets it. Letha has not been able to be out and about for sometime now, so let's "visit" with her.

To Select Chairman

Selection of a new chairman of the Farmington City Planning Commission is expected to head that group's agenda for its meeting Monday night, July 8.

The present chairman, Frederick M. Selbert, was appointed this week to a berth on the City Council as successor to recently-retired Hugo E. Peterson.

At the moment this gives the planning commission two members of the council on its roster, John A. Allen being the other.

It is expected that Allen will resign from this assignment and that he will be given Peterson's role as council representative on the Zoning Board of Appeals. Meanwhile, Selbert seems likely to continue on the planning board as council representative but yield the chairmanship.

In any event, one planning commission vacancy will result and it will be filled by council appointment.

Other planning commissioners at present include Charlotte Bruce, secretary; William Burke, Westcott E. Peterson, Don Stoddard, Russell D. Milligan, Jesse T. McDonald and James Platt.

JUDGE NELSON for DISTRICT COURT

EDUCATION. Robert H. Nelson earned a bachelor's degree (magna cum laude) at the University of Detroit, a law degree at Harvard Law School and a master's degree at Harvard Business School.

EXPERIENCE. For the past thirteen years he has practiced law in Oakland and Wayne counties, his office being located in Westbrooke Centre in Farmington Township. Judge Nelson began his judicial duties when he took office as township justice on July 4, 1959, and he has held this judicial office ever since, running for re-election in 1963.

Earlier in his life Judge Nelson was an Eagle Scout, an Assistant Scoutmaster, a naval officer who landed in Normandy on D-Day and a Certified Public Accountant in the Detroit office of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co. He is still a C.P.A., although inactive.

ACTIVITIES. Judge Nelson is a member of the American Judicature Society (organized to promote the efficient administration of justice), a member of the Michigan and Oakland County bars and has been admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States.

He has been a member of various professional committees and has had two professional papers published in national journals, one of which was republished in a book put out by McGraw-Hill.

Judge Nelson is a member of the Northwest Traffic Safety Committee (serving southeast Oakland County, including Greater Farmington). He served on the Greater Farmington Youth Guidance Committee (1959-1964).

Besides working in the Normandy Hills Ass'n, the Kendallwood Ass'n and the former Farmington Twp. Civic Ass'n, he served as the secretary, and then as the president, of the former Farmington Twp. League of Subdivision Associations. He assisted in the organization of the Briar Hill Ass'n, the Franklin Forest & Fairway Ass'n, the Holly Hill Farms Ass'n, the Orchard Meadows Ass'n and the Westbrooke Manor Ass'n.

Starting in 1964 Judge Nelson has been active in efforts to encourage and restore the celebration of the Fourth of July, in order to help younger generations achieve a better appreciation of our Amer. heritage. The Kendallwood I and Colony Park committee is very pleased that for their celebration this year he received an acceptance, as Fourth-of-July orator, from the senior United States Senator from Michigan. Last year's was the Congressman from Michigan's 19th District, and an Oakland County Circuit Judge before that, so there's been help from high up as well as from many local people.

FAMILY. Judge Nelson's family consists of his wife, Sib (for Sylvia, somehow), and their 12-year-old daughter, Ingrid.

Farmington's present lower-court system of justice and municipal courts is being altered next January into a lower-court system which was rushed into law at the last minute but which nevertheless will be a great improvement, especially for ordinary citizens before the court, that is, if certain aspects can be ironed out and it can be made to work well. Judge Nelson, with his qualifications, feels this can be done, so if you want to keep him on the job, look for
