

Pilot 'Confesses', Gets Crew, Passengers Released

TOKYO -- Capt. Joseph Tossolini signed a letter confessing that he violated Soviet air space so that the ship and 214 troops aboard could be freed. When released, Tossolini said, "I did not stray over Russian territory."

A Federal Aviation Administration spokesman said in Washington, "We have reliable information that there was a violation of Soviet air space."

WASHINGTON -- The Federal Aviation Agency and U.S. airlines have said it is impossible to prevent passenger planes from being hijacked.

FAA spokesman, Irving Higgs, said, "It's an impossible problem short of searching every passenger." Another spokesman said, "The only real way to halt these hijackings is to eliminate firearms from the airplane, and the only way to do this is to detect them." He added there was no foolproof system for this in existence.

COLUMBIA, Mo. -- The first application of computer heart detection, outside the laboratory, is being funded by federal funds in six Missouri cities.

Electrical impulses from the patient's heart are sent to a computer at the University of Missouri Medical Center, by use of long-distance telephone lines.

National Roundup

CALIFORNIA -- Gov. Ronald Reagan has announced he will be a presidential contender, but not before the GOP National convention, Reagan said, "I intend to be placed in nomination to the California delegation and if at that time the convention wishes to consider me a candidate, the convention can do so."

He added, he didn't think anyone had the delegate votes to get it and that it was still an open question.

NEW YORK -- A lone sniper entered a public comfort station in Central Park and shot a woman to death. Before he was brought down by police shots, he also wounded an elderly man and two policemen.

Evicted out of a group of trees near the Metropolitan Museum of Art by police-fired tear gas, the heavy-set, middle-aged gunman was shot down.

MIAMI, Fla. -- The self-appointed modern-day Robin Hood, jewel thief, Jack "Murphy" Murphy, has been declared legally insane.

Murphy's robbery and murder trials were canceled by Criminal Court Judge Carling yesterday after the judge declared him, "Mentally unable to understand charges against him."

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. -- A leak in a gas-line in a water purification plant sent more than 1,000 families and personnel from Pope Air Force Base fleeing from their homes.

Highly dangerous in large amounts, the leaking chlorine gas was repaired with emergency work. The plant is on the air force base.

PHILADELPHIA -- After a month's illness, Francis Cardinal Brennan, 79, died in Philadelphia's Misericordia Hospital.

Cardinal Brennan was known as the "Quiet American" in Rome, where he served in the highest Vatican post an American has ever held. The cardinal began serving the church as an altar boy in a small Pennsylvania coal town.

WASHINGTON -- Congress charged funds requested to aid in heading-off ghetto violence and approved:

- $5 billion for Vietnam costs,
- $1 billion for federal welfare,
- $5 million, out of $25 million requested, for anti-poverty programs.

WASHINGTON -- The only government agency empowered to get back excessive profits on defense and space contracts, expired this week.

A bill to renew the authority of the Renegotiation Board is still tabled in the Senate Finance Committee.

BERKELEY, CALIF. -- Before the 8 p.m. curfew went into effect, a crowd of 1,000 on the campus of the University of California, voted to demand from the city council an end of the curfew.

Other demands by the throng, listening to leaders of the Young Socialist Alliance and Peace stolen from the home of multi-millionaire Willis Dupont.

BOSTON -- Attorneys for Dr. Benjamin Spock and three co-defendants in anti-draft conspiracy charges, have moved to U.S. District Judge Francis J.W. Ford to reverse their conviction.

Ford has not indicated if he will rule on the motion. The maximum penalty for the charge is five years in prison or a fine of $10,000.

WASHINGTON -- The bill for the six-week Poor People's Campaign calls for at least $1.2 million. The cost to the campaigners and every one involved, including the public, may be cut if the materials used to build the structure. City are negotiated as partial repayment.

The SCLC was required to post a $5,000 bond.

WASHINGTON -- The U.S. Public Health Service is again attacking the tobacco industries. Recent findings by them indicate heavy cigarette smoking can shorten life by as much as eight years.

These reports fit in with suggestions by the Federal Trade Commission, that all cigarette advertising on radio and television be banned.

ed 128 American flagships.

MADISON, Wis. -- Wisconsin is the only state in the U.S. that's in the insurance business. According to Belford Hogboom, head of the state division administering the fund, 7,518 persons held policies with the state last year.

NEW YORK -- Coming after an agreement calling for a five per cent increase in base pay and 15 more vacation days, the National Maritime Union has ended its strike.

The three-day strike had idled
