

MRS. EDWARD RICHARD MARIAN, JR.
(Julia Rebecca O'Daniel)

Two Clergymen Hear Wedding Vows Spoken

Julia Rebecca O'Daniel became the bride of Edward Richard Marian Jr., in a double wedding ceremony on Aug. 3, in the Nardin Park Methodist Church, Farmington.

The Rev. William D. Mercer of Nardin Park, and the Rev. Thomas Haskins, of Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Orie LeRoy O'Daniel of Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richard Marian Sr. of Mt. Lebanon.

Newlyweds Travel East

Sue Ann Cunningham became the bride of David H. Woodman in a recent double wedding ceremony in St. Agatha Catholic Church, Redford Township.

The Rev. John T. Reid officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. David Cunningham of Norborne, Redford Township, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodsum, of Northbrook, Ill.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an imported silk organza gown with bodice and sleeves trimmed in peach orange lace. The chapel-length train was detachable with an A-line silhouette skirt. The bride wore an elbow-length illusion veil, and carried a bouquet of stephanotis with dahlias.

The maid of honor was Diane Woodsum. Sue Woodsum, Bonnie Leland, of Bay City, Carole Jones, of Detroit, and Sue Meadows, of Bloomfield Hills, served as bridesmaids.

Steve Woodsum served as best man and Greg Woodsum, Barry Labadie, of Bay City, Chuck Balganzon, of Birmingham, Bob Dixon, of Chicago, and Boomer Wilkey, of Chatham, were ushers.

The couple spent two weeks in New England and will live in East Lansing.

The bride graduated from Redford Union High School and is a 1968 graduate of Michigan State University. The bridegroom is a senior at MSU.

The new Mrs. Woodsum will teach second grade this fall at Redford Elementary School in Clarksville.

Watermelon Feed Planned

An open house and watermelon feed on the lawn at Northwest Branch YWCA, 25940 Grand River, is planned from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 9. Continuous entertainment will be provided throughout the evening, with music by the Eternal Palms, featured outside the building, and displays from some YWCA classes. Many of the teachers on the staff of the Northwest Branch will be on hand for the occasion. In addition, brief demonstrations from some YWCA classes, as well as performances by a vocal group known as the Grunions, also planned.

Watermelon will be served for 10 cents a slice, and it is suggested that people dress casually and bring a blanket to sit on the lawn. The affair is designed as a family event for the community and the public is invited. The program will be held inside if it rains.

Good Leftovers

Stretch leftover fish by arranging alternate layers of sliced, hard-cooked eggs and leftover fish removed from the bones. Add one-half teaspoon of curry powder to a cup of well seasoned white sauce, and pour over the top.

The top with buttered bread crumbs and brown under broiler heat.

F'ton Couple Living In Texas

Marlene Janice Coe and Roger Lewis Ernst were united in marriage recently in the Salem United Church of Christ, Farmington.

The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Coe, Drake Road, Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ernst of Milan.

The Rev. Carl H. Schultz officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line silhouette gown of ivory tulle, with the neckline, sleeves, hemline and detachable chapel train detailed in Venice lace.

THE BRIDE'S elbow-length veil of ivory illusion was fastened to a pillow made from the silk of a parachute brought back from World War II by the bride's uncle, Lt. Thomas Schriber, of the Farmington Township Police force. She carried a cascade bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids.

The matron of honor was Mrs. James Ziegler, the bride's sister. Mrs. Thomas Jewell served as bridesmaid, and the bride's niece, Kimberly Ann Rogerson, was flower girl.

The attendants wore yellow A-line dresses of marquisa trimmed in avocado Brussels lace and carried cascade bouquets of yellow foil mums. The flower girl carried a basket of baby mums.

Best man, Edward Burke, and the ushers, John Lynch, Roger Andrzejewski, and Randolph Verity, were all fraternity brothers of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a three-piece dress of mint green and the mother of the bridegroom chose an aqua silk dress trimmed with lace. Both wore corsages of yellow roses.

The couple will reside in San Antonio, where the bridegroom is presently stationed in the U.S. Army.

Both are graduates of Cleary Business College, Ypsilanti, and the bridegroom is affiliated with the Tau Kappa Delta fraternity.

Comb Plus Soap Equals No Snarls

Long hair benefits from one extra step during shampoo - that is by using a wide-tooth comb to smooth out tangles while the locks are lubricated by the lather. This precedes thorough rinsing.
