

Festival of cultural heritage

The viking ship that is now on the grounds of Finnish Cultural Center in Farmington Hills is on its way to the Scandinavian Festival which runs for three days in Wyandotte's Yack Arena, beginning at 6 p.m. Friday. Krielen Lehto (in foreground), a jazz pianist and saxophonist, is also director of the Holjakat Folk Dancers, who will take part in the festival of cultural heritage. On the float is Christine Jurgensen, another Scandinavian-American from Farmington Hills, among area residents who are working on food, music, song and craft committees.
