Roller skater McGuire, 18, to retire

Tim McGuire, one of the greatest performers in roller skating history, two-time world and national champion, fresh from the triumphant defense of his men's singles title at the National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs, has announced his retirement at the age of 18.

has announced his retirement age of 18.

McGuire, a 1982 graduate of Rochester Adams High School, will compete for his third consecutive national title next weekend in Fort Worth, Texas, and will go for his third stringht world crown in October, also in Fort Worth, before hanging up his skates. He already has three straight Sports Festival champlocatips to his credit.

The had my fill of skating, said and social side, to school activities. But skating, been out of while. There's been a tot of seen out of it want it wanted, so now I can out of it what it wanted, so now I can leave it with a wanted, so now I can leave it with a wanted, so now I can leave it with a wanted, so now I can leave it with a wanted, so now I can leave it with a wanted, so now I can work it wanted to save if you havent always it was the wanted to see the work it was the work it was the wanted of the government of the could be work to see the work of the wor nee on the to covering a thirty of com-olation. Then there was the matter of com-placency. "It's hard to come back each year and put in the same effort," ad-mitted McGuire, a personable, articu-late young man who comes across, not as a prima donna, but as having his head screwed on extremely straight.

When you are on top, there's no one to go after, while the other guys are say. "When you are on top, uneres no one to go after, while the other guys are say-ing. 'I gotta get him.' This year I'm working hard, but not as hard (as be-fore). I'm not picking up any new con-tent; I'm just maintaining what I did. "Basically, I've had enough. I don't

THOUGH McGuirle has dominated his sport, he was very late getting into stating compared to other world-class performers, 10 as opposed to 6 or 7. His dad, Fred, an electrical engineer, had once skated competitively and began taking his family to local rinks on family nights.

"My dad could still do some of the thines he did when he was younger."

"My dad could still do some or the things he did when he was younger," said McGuire. "I tried to do them, too

Farmington skaters shoot for gold at the world games

Speed roller skating isn't the most popular sport in the world. It's not a professional sport. It's not an Olympic sport. It's not even a widely accepted recreational sport.
But that hasn't deterred four Farmigton Hills residents from becoming some of the best speed skaters in the world.

Chuck Jackson, Rob Dunn, Renee Stone and Dawn Thomas have found

Dunn (left) and

success and fulfillment from the physically demanding and unappreciated sport of speed roller skating.
The four were among eight skaters coached by Virgil Dooley, former coach at Bonaventure Roller Rink in Farmington, that competed at the National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs, Colorado last month.

DUNN AND JACKSON, who shart an apartment in Farmington Hills each won gold medals at the festival Dunn was the overall winner in this mean senior division. He took first it the 1,500-meters and second in the 3,000. Jackson won gold in the 1,000 meters.

meters.
Thomas, 15 years old and a senier a
Thomas, 15 years old and a senier a
North Farmington High School, places third in both the 1,000- and 500-meter races. Stooe, 18, placed second in the 500. Stooe is living the summer with Thomas and her family.

Participating in the National Sports Festival was just about as close as any of the four will get to competing in the Olympic games. Not because they aren't talented enough, but because roller skating is not an Olympic sport.

There were so many people at the featival, said Thomas. We were treated really well. It was an Olympic-type setting, especially with the opening certmonles, it was really neat. "Yeah, they treated us so good we almost didn't want to come home," Store said.

A SPEED SKATER'S Olympics is the World Championships held in a different country every year. All four Farmington Hills skaters will be competing for the opportunity to compete the propertury of the

"ROB DUNN is the most successful skater I've coached," said Dooley, who has been coaching for more than 30 years. "He's not a super natural athlete, but he's a tremendous worker. And through his hard work, he has become one of the best."

Dunn grew up in Mount Clemens where his father owned a roller rink

Protecting his ground

Troy-Birmingham catcher Pat Hughes blocks Farmington's Mark Green from reaching the plate during a Legion game last week at Athens

High School. For a complete American Legion baseball wrap-up, please turn to Page 5C.

Chris McCosky

The voice of summer

Is VOICE, RESONANT, resounds throughout my mest cherished memories. His is truly the voice of summer.

Well, this big crowd here is ready to break loose. Three men on, two men out. Game tied 1-1 in the ninth inning, McDantel checkin his sign with Jake Gibbs. The tall righthander ready to go to work again.—wind up, and the pitch.—He swings, line shot, base hit right-field! The Tigers win it! Here comes Kaline to score and it's ALL OVER! Don Wert singles, the Tigers mob Don. Kaline has scored, the fans are streaming onto the field, and the Tigers have won their limit pennant since Nineteen Hundred and Forty-Five. (Sounds of estatey addible in the background.) Let's listen to the beddam at Tiger Stadium.

Stadium.*

I was 10 years old when Ernie Harwell described the scene at Tiger Stadium that hot and glorious night in 1968. It was one of the happiest nights of my life. The memory of that night, and Harwell's description, are indellibly etched in my mind.

Who can't remember the joyous summer of 1968? Who of my age group can't remember listening to the radio during school? Why did the teachers let us get away with that?

REMEMBER WHEN Denny McLain won his 30th game? They were losing 4-3 in the ninth to Gatland. Reg-gie Jackson had hit two homers off him. Things looked bad, but 1968 was magic. The Tigers tied the score. And then ban, not tree was magn. are ages too are access to the new tenner.

"Man on first, man on third. One man down. Two-two the count on Willie Horton. Here's the set by Segul, the pitch—swung on, a drive to left That'll be the ballgame! It's over the head of Geoger. McLain wins his 30th Here comes Stanley into score. . Denny McLain is one of the the third of the diggori racing out and Horton is mobbed as the Theta the diggori racing out and Horton is mobbed as the Theta the diggori racing out and the third is mobbed as the Theta the diggori the third in the third in the properties. It was last Wednesday at Tiger Stadium, the place where most far my memories are generated.

THE MAN IS a member of the beseball Hall of Fame. e resides in Farmington Hills. He's making a movie, home were the professional reasons for doing the inter-He is the voice of my memories. He has been an inte-gral part of my summer routine for my entire life. I just flat-out wanted to sit and talk baseball with him. Those were the real reasons for doing the interview.

Ernile Harwell is the type of person who you want to count among your friends though you've never really met him. It seems like you've known him all your life because he's always been a part of you life.

hain. It seems like you've known nim all you'r lite because he's always been a part of your life.

And I think he's aware of this. I've not interviewed too namy "celebreties." Of those I have interviewed, none have made me feel as relaxed and at ease as Harwell. He acted as if he had known me all his life.

We talked about the movie, "Tiger Town." It seems my fondness for 1988 is shared by movie writer and director Alan Shapiro. He has written a fictitious movie based on the thrills of 1968 and the life of Al Kaline. Shapiro, by the way, is a native of Bloomtleid Hills and a graduate of Andover High School.

AND AS WELL they should, Harwell, along with his 1988 broadcasting pariner Ray Lane, will do play-by-play and interview scenes in the movie.

The hero is based on Kaline's baseball career. I'm the announcer; asid Harwell. 'Alan Shapiro was a fan back in 1988, and he knew I was the announcer back in those days."

in 1988, and he knew I was the announcer nack in nose days."

So, he saked if he and Lane would take part in the movie. Harwell's play by play will serve to move the movie along from acene to scene. He will also be seen interviewing Billy Young, the Kaline-like here portrayed by Roy Schelder.

"I've really enjoyed it. It's been fun. I've met actors before-but I've never really done a scene with any," Harwell sakel.

The voice of Harwell is not a stranger to the cinema. It was Eurwell's voice-you heard announcing the 1983 World Scriets in the movie "One Flew Over the Cuckno's Near." Harwell's voice also played a major role in the made-to-television drama "Aun' Mary."

HE ADMITS that "Tiger Town is a little special.
"I feel gratified by the fact that they picked me (to be in the movie). It's mice to be included in something that celebrates the Tiger '85 team which it is, in a sense, though it's fictionalized. It's a tribute to the Tigers. It's a great thing to go back and remember, he said during the great thing to go back and remember, he all during the off-season. He's not food of basking in the limelight. I sent of just like to stay home and relax, he said.
Two years ago be bought a house in Farmington Hills and lives there now year-round.

Revco: capital gains opportunity

In fiscal 1983, Cleveland-based Revco continued its leadership role as the nation's largest drugstore chain. Further, the company maintained its ranking as one of the fastest-growing and most profitable chains in the country. In the past 10 years, Revco's earnings per share have grown an impressive 19.5% annually.

Our Research Department has just published a new report giving all the facts and figures - and the reasons why we suggest you consider Revco ($30) if you're looking for above average capital gains over the next 12 months.

This report is yours free. Just mail the coupon or call 313-540-1221.

McDONALD $\mathcal{E}$ COMPANY

Member New York Stock Exchange

Member SIPC

McDonald & Company Birmingham Place Sulte #333 401 South Woodward Avenue Birmingham, Michigan 48011
Please send me your new report on Revco Drug Stores.
Name
AddressPhone
CityStateZip