

Huron River canoe map ready

The 1983 edition of the Huron River Canoe Map is available.

The map covers a 101-mile stretch of the Huron from Proude Lake in western Oakland County to the shores of Lake Erie. It shows public campsites, launching and parking areas, portages, liveries, road crossings and orientation points.

You can pick up a copy free at the offices of Kensington, Hudson Mills and Lower Huron metroparks. Or you may obtain a copy by mail by sending your name, address and 20 cents in postage or coin to: Huron River Canoe Map, Dept. 9-19, c/o metroparks, 3050 Penobscot Building, Detroit 48226.

The map shows one of Michigan's most popular canoeing routes in four segments: 1) Proude Lake to Kensington Metropark near New Hudson, 2) Kensington to Dexter, 3) Dexter to Belleville and 4) Belleville to Lake Erie.

Designed by graphic artist Michael S. Broad, the map also shows travel times, indicating the entire route can be covered in 42 hours.

BACKPACKING is the topic of a program being taught by Linda Marsh, an experienced backpacker and climber who has hiked most of North America.

Her "Wilderness and Back Country Camping" program will be 7:30-9 p.m. Friday, July 29, at the Twin Chimneys Shelter of Independence Oaks County Park, on Sachlaw Road 2 1/2 miles north of I-75 near Clarkston.

Pre-registration takes only a phone call to the county parks office at 858-0903. Vehicle admission to the park is $2.50 for Oakland residents.

Marsh will share her knowledge of back country camping, clothing, gear and first aid. Dress for the outdoors.

HURON-CLINTON Metroparks have several nature and outdoor programs on tap in the week ahead. Programs are free unless noted, there is a $2 vehicle admission at the park gate, and you should call the listed phone number to pre-register.
