

Pet contest launched

A donation to the Oakland Humane Society will buy one vote in the Favorite Pet Contest, launched this week by Farmington Area Jaycettes.

Contestants enter a photo of their favorite pet that will be posted in Elias Brothers Big Boy Restaurant. Then the contributing voters declare the winner.

Entry forms are available now in all area veterinarian clinics, pet supply stores and both Farmington libraries.

To enter, send a photo, no larger than 3 by 5 inches, of a favorite pet along with name, address, phone number and $1 entry fee to: Farmington Jaycettes, Favorite Pet Contest, care of Sandy Forsythe, 24967 Woodview Court, Apt. 5205, Farmington Hills 48018.

Entries must be received by Saturday, Aug. 20.

All photo entries will be on display from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 27, which is voting day in Big Boy's on Orchard Lake Road, north of 10 Mile Road.

Prizes to the winning pet's owners will be furnished by area merchants. Photos will not be returned.

Bel Canto Choral Society has named Dr. Morton Gold as music director.

Gold came to this area as organist and music director at Temple Israel in 1982. Previously he was professor of music at Nassau College in Springville, Maine.

He has conducted the Boston Pope Orchestra and is the composer of "Hallelujah: A Search for Freedom" and also of "Hallelujah: A Pageant of Farewell."

Gold holds a master's degree in teaching from Harvard University and a bachelor's degree in music and Doctor of Musical Arts Degree from Boston University. He has studied conducting with Pierre Monteux and Hugh Ross. Married, he has three children and resides in West Bloomfield.

Bel Canto Choral Society has performed in the metropolitan area for many years evolving into a group noted for its professional presentations.

There are a few openings in all women's vocal ranges. Women who can read music may arrange for an audition by calling Freda Mendelson at 352-8037 or Mary Epstein at 851-9863.
